Thoughts from Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today's readings are remarkable as is always the case in the Sunday readings, but of particular note today is the way humans and God perceive the things of this world. In the first reading we hear "As Jesse and his sons came to the sacrifice, Samuel looked at Eliab and thought, "surely the Lord's anointed is here before him." But the Lord said to Samuel: "Do not judge from his appearance or his lofty stature, because I have rejected him. Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks at the heart." This is a great advice for us! Sometimes we do not look beyond appearances but we stick on what we see, what is pleasing to us. This is why we are always in trouble; that is why marriages are in trouble, families are in trouble, and our government is in trouble -- or simply said, everybody is in trouble. To look at something beyond our eyes, we need to be patient, to have faith and trust in God. But we do not necessarily have faith in God because we are not perfect. Sometimes we do not rely on God but instead we put so much energy on what we see.

From the first reading, after all Jesse's sons were rejected, there was one missing and who was not even presented because he was deemed to be young, a shepherd with no experience. After Saul failed to follow God's directions, God sent Samuel to anoint a new king. Samuel was led to the house of Jesse where he was presented with only the eldest sons. God did not pick any of them to be the new King. Instead he picked David, the smallest of all the sons. We learn from this episode that God knows each human being and what we are capable of.

Also, this Sunday is called Laetare, Latin for "Joy" or "Rose Sunday" because the priest wears rose vestments. It is called Joyful Sunday because it provides us encouragement as we progress toward the end of the Lenten season. Our second reading from the book of Ephesians encourages us to live as children of light for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth. My prayer is that as we approach the greatest and singular event in the entire history of human salvation, the event which we call EASTER! can transform us to be not only listeners of God's message but also doers.

Finally, I want to thank Sue Schouten and the Fundraising Committee for organizing our spring raffle, and all those who participated in it.

God bless you.

Rev. George O. Omwando

APRIL 2, 2017 - 5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Ezekiel 37:12-14

The prophet Ezekiel spoke to God's people during their exile in Babylon, six centuries before Christ. In today's passage, the prophet (using the image of death and resurrection) assures the people that god will one day bring them back to their homeland.

Second Reading: Romans 8:8-11

Paul's letter to the Romans is his most detailed and important theological work. Throughout the letter, he teaches that Jesus overcame sin and the effects of sin. In today's passage, Paul stresses that through the Spirit, this saving power of Jesus is present and active in Christians of all times and places.

Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl - Fourth Week of Lent

Call to Family, Community and Participation

Catholic social teaching inspires and guides how we are to live and work in the world. In this principle, Call to Family, Community and Participation, we remember that human beings are social by nature—we need each other. We, like the early disciples, are called to come together and grow as a community—whether that community is in our classroom, workplace or family.

As Pope Francis says, “Lent is the perfect time for charitable giving, in the Catholic tradition”. Your donation to CRS today can provide health care, clean water and food to children & families in need around the world.

Do you have a box already? They are at the Church back exit. Return it by April 13, 2017 Holy Thursday to the church.

9:00 AM Saturday Mass Mass Intentions

Office of Human Dignity & Solidarity Immigration Ministry

Did you know?

That more than half of registered Syrian refugees are children....

“Lent is a favorable season for opening the doors to all those in need and recognizing in them the face of Christ... Each life that we encounter is a gift deserving acceptance, respect and love. The word of God helps us to open our eyes to welcome and love life, especially when it is weak and vulnerable.”

-Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2017

The U.S. refugee resettlement program is a life-saving program for the most vulnerable of the world's refugees. Welcoming people fleeing violence and conflict in various regions of the world is part of our identity as Catholics. We seek to protect the vulnerable and recognize the human dignity of all.

ACTION: This Lent ask Congress to support these people by welcoming them, offering assistance and seeking an end to the war. Send an email at confrontglobalpoverty.org or call your members of Congress: 888-562-8232.
