Thoughts From our Pastor Rev. George O. Omwando

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

What is success? Most definitions include references to achieving goals and acquiring wealth, prestige, favor, and power. "Successful" people enjoy the good life -- being financially and emotionally secure sometimes, or being surrounded by admirers and enjoying the fruits of their labors. They are leaders, opinion-makers, and trendsetters. Their example is emulated: their accomplishments are noticed. They know who they are and where they are going, and they stride confidently to meet their goals. By these standards, prophet Jeremiah was a miserable failure. For 40 years he served as God's spokesman to Judah; but when Jeremiah spoke nobody listened. Consistently and passionately he urged them to act, but nobody moved. And he certainly did not attain material success. He was poor and went underwent severe deprivation to deliver his prophecies. He was rejected by his neighbors, his family, false prophets, and priests. Throughout his life, Jeremiah stood alone, declaring God's messages of doom, announcing the new covenant, and weeping over fate of his beloved country. In the eyes of the world, prophet Jeremiah was not successful but in God's eyes, Jeremiah was one of the most successful prophets in all of history.

Success as measured by God involves obedience and faithfulness. Regardless of opposition and personal cost, Jeremiah courageously and faithfully proclaimed the word of God. We sometimes say of someone that they are "a wolf in sheep's clothing." What we mean by that is that they are not really what they seem. Jeremiah says exactly that about the leaders of Judah. He is not only speaking of the king but also of the courtiers and the priests. They had been charged by God to lead the people in the ways of God but they had done the very opposite. Look at what God says to them through Jeremiah-- verses 20: 1-2. They had scattered, they had destroyed -- they were supposed to unite and build up the people but they did the very opposite. The people supposed to be leading, setting an example, teaching the ways of God, and bringing the people together under God actually did the opposite. The result was that God would visit judgment upon them for this. Jeremiah contrasted the present corrupt leaders with the coming Messiah, the perfect King, who would come from David's line to reign over Israel. They all would stand guilty before God as false leaders and as failed leaders, because those whom God had placed in leadership had failed; the sheep were now scattered all over the world. At this time the people of Israel were in captivity to Babylon and Assyria. God now, as always, takes the initiative. God, the true Shepherd of His people, is going to gather them together again. He is going to stretch out His arm and gather them around Him. He will also replace the faithless shepherds with faithful ones. God will not see His people scattered and lost forever. No, He will intervene, as He did in the past, because His desire is for His people to be one and to be led in the way of righteousness before Him. So God through Jeremiah speaks of this regathering of His people. Brothers and sisters in Christ, we are God's people whom He loves so much, and He wants us to do His will by keeping our baptismal promises. Our actions have consequences. Let us listen to His voice calling us daily to love one another as He loves us.

God bless you.

Fr. George

Rest in the Lord

For several weeks we have listened to readings that have recounted just how arduous the work of prophets and disciples can be. In today's Gospel, the Lord Jesus listens to the reports of those he had sent out "two by two" to minister to the people. After the apostles reported what they had done, Jesus, recognizing their fatigue, says, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile"

(Mark 6:31). Perhaps this is what the Lord is telling his disciples in the year 2018 as well. We need to pause on our journey of discipleship and simply rest in the Lord. Sunday Mass provides many opportunities for quiet times, particularly during the periods of silence following the readings.

Why not take the time today to allow the saving word of the Lord to penetrate your heart during those silent times? Ask the Lord to renew you in body, mind, and spirit for the arduous work of discipleship

WEEKLY MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE

There IS NOT Thursday Communion Service (until September)

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

JULY 29, 2018 – 17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:42-44

Elisha was the successor of the great prophet Elijah, who lived about 800 hundred years before Christ. Elisha was noted for his miraculous deeds. Today, we hear of one such deed performed during a time of famine.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:1-6

The first three chapters of the letter to the Ephesians teach doctrine; we now begin the next part of the letter which contains practical advice for Christian living. In today's passage, you will hear the author speak of seven ways in which Christians are united. In one sense, this is the foundation of the ecumenical movement.

Much Needed Prayer

Each Christian needs half an hour of prayer each day, except when we are busy; then we need an hour.

—St. Francis de Sales

School News

- ..# The school is officially on summer hours. The office will be open from 9am-1pm Mondays through Thursdays.
- ..# We are still accepting enrollment for certain grades. Please direct anyone looking for a fantastic school to our front door!

We hope you are enjoying your summer vacation. Whether you are traveling, playing or learning, hope it's a relaxing time for you.

Come September there will be a change in class times. We will no longer have Religious Education on Wednesday evenings; we will be having Religious Education on Sunday morning from 9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. This will allow the children and their families to attend mass together. The first day of Religious Ed will be September 9, 2018. Much thought has gone into this decision, and Fr. George and our catechists feel it is a wise decision.

Keep watching the bulletin as we get closer to September and more information will be forthcoming. Also if you child/children attended class last year they will automatically be registered for this year. Watch the bulletin regarding registration for new students during the month of August.

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future.

—Father George

Summer Stewardship

A gentle reminder that our stewardship of our parish does not go on vacation! If you go on vacation or your plans keep you from being present here on the weekends, please try to "make up" your regular offering another weekend.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The American Revolution cleared the way for freedom of religion in the former colonies, since the colonies had always been a more religiously tolerant place than the old country. Even so, colonial laws restricted the practice of the Catholic faith, and just as in England, Americans who desired to be priests or nuns had to go to the Netherlands or France. As political storm clouds gathered in France, an American woman, Mother Bernardina Matthews, the prioress of the Hoogstraeten Carmel in Holland, made a brave move. With two other American nuns, her nieces, and a Dutch sister, she came to Port Tobacco, Maryland, in 1790. Within twenty years the community had grown to twenty, although by 1823 their farm failed and they had to move to Baltimore and open a school. The Carmelite order requires contemplation and cloister, so in time the school was closed. The Port Tobacco land had long since been sold, but in 1976 a community of nuns was able to return thanks to loyal neighbors who had worked for forty years for their restoration. Today, our original American convent is fully alive in prayer, hard work, and strong community.
