Thoughts from Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Christmas is over and for many now it is a time of recovery from the pressures of celebration, from the trials of family, from the financial expenses of the “retail spirit of Christmas.” We must thank God for having walked with us during this season. As we have begun this new civil year 2020, we do the same by asking God to take care of us daily.

Today we celebrate the baptism of our Lord Jesus Christ before He began His public ministry. Last week, we celebrated the feast of Epiphany when Christ was manifested to the whole world. In this manifestation, it shows that Jesus was not born to serve one group of people only, i.e. the Jews, but to also to non-Jews. From the Eve of Christmas until today, this season is known as Christmastide which is characterized with the celebration of remarkable feasts. For instance: Christmas, St. Stephen (1st Martyr), St. John the Evangelist and Apostle, the Solemnity of the Motherhood of Mary (January 1st), the Holy Innocents and the Epiphany. These feasts are supposed to deepen our understanding of who Christ is and what kind of people He draws to Himself.

In today’s feast of the baptism of our Lord, there are two key players: Jesus Christ and His cousin, John the Baptist. John the Baptist’s ministry was to prepare the way for the Messiah. His message was simple and straightforward as he asked people to repent because the kingdom of heaven was near! (Matthew 3:2). When people repented, he baptized them. When Jesus Christ arrived on the scene, the Jewish people were looking for a deliverer to make things right in their country. The Jews were a people whose land was occupied by an oppressive foreign government, and they longed for freedom. But it was more than that. It was a people whose relationship with God had grown cold. To know someone is to love him or her, and to love someone is to follow him/her. To fulfill people’s desire, Jesus’ baptism was an affirmation of John’s ministry, and by doing this it was as if Jesus was saying, “John, I want you to baptize Me, because that will show that your message was true, your ministry was true, and it will link Me, the Messiah, with your ministry, which was to pronounce the coming of the Messiah, and it will link My ministry with your ministry as building upon it.” So that is the first thing that that baptism of Christ was – to fulfill all righteousness that he had with God. Jesus’ baptism also served to relieve John’s doubts about the Messiah who was coming. We know from John 1:31 that John himself had been unsure about the identity of the Messiah up until this time. In fact, we are told in the Gospels elsewhere that John had his doubts even later. For John the Baptist, Jesus did not turn out to be quite who he was expecting, and he had to ask the Lord on at least one occasion, “Are You the one, or is there another?” This baptism was the Lord Jesus’ gift to John to assure him, “Yes I am the one.” This baptism also serves to confirm the message of John. It symbolizes the Lord Jesus’ identification with His people and their plight. It is as if Jesus is saying, “Yes, John’s message is right. You are sinners, you do need redemption from sin. And My receiving of this baptism is My sign that I am identifying with you. I will be the sin-bearer, so the baptism of repentance has efficacy.”

I hope this Christmas season has deepened and will continue to deepen your faith or your own knowledge of Christ. If you do not know him or your faith is wavering, please seek help from friends, relatives, or any one of our pastoral staff that you are comfortable with who can accompany in your journey of faith. We all need help from others. God bless you.

— Fr. George

This is my Beloved Son

This Sunday's celebration of the Baptism of the Lord closes the Christmas season. In the scriptures we see one more epiphany, or manifestation, of the Spirit of God in Jesus—but this time it is as an adult, rather than as a child. Jesus' baptism also serves as the inauguration of his prophetic mission and the messianic age.

Today's reading from Isaiah describes God's chosen Messiah, upon whom God's spirit rests. In the Acts of the Apostles Peter says that "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power" (Acts 10:38). Finally, in the proclamation from Matthew's Gospel Jesus' baptism in water goes almost unnoticed. The crucial moment comes when the Spirit of God comes upon Jesus and a voice from heaven echoes the words of Isaiah: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17).

Coletta Ali, Mike Ballew, Shelby Boblick, Eloise Brown, Lillian Czaplicki, Scarlett Evans, Dwayne and Paula Evans, Dave Grayson, Phillip Jones, Paul Koko, Kathleen Kroker, Georgine Mullen, Dee Norman, Kathy Paoli, Albert Parker, Jr., Raul Perez, Jennifer Saldukas, and Dewy Seltzer

The name of your close relative will remain on this list for four weeks. After that you will have to call us again to reinstate it into the list. If you wish to include a name of a sick member of your family here, please call Amanda at the rectory during office hours. Thank you.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

JANUARY 19, 2020 - 2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

The book of Isaiah in four different places speaks of a mysterious servant of God. This servant is sent to do great and marvelous things that touch the entire world. Christians have traditionally thought of Jesus as the fulfillment of these passages.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:1-3

For the next several Sundays our second reading will be taken from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians. Today's readings presents the opening words of that letter. It is an example of the salutation used in classical letter writing: Paul identifies himself, acknowledges the community to whom he is writing, and extends warm personal greetings.

Bible Study - Mondays 9:30 AM

Our Bible Study group meets on Mondays ~ 9:30—11:00 AM in the Rectory.

We use the New Collegeville Bible Commentary from Collegeville, Minnesota. We read the scriptures, weekly psalms, and the commentary. Then we discuss it. It is an enlightening experience and is totally free.

Communion & Anointing of the Sick

Please call the Rectory at 708-386-8077 to let us know if you or a member of your family is in need of the sacrament of anointing of the sick or would like to have Holy Communion brought to your house or nursing home or both.

Remember a Loved One

We have the 2020 Mass Book open for your requests. Come to the Rectory to request your Masses. Remember your loved ones or any other special occasion. Mass intentions are only $10.00.

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future.

Tickets can be purchased through the school (send money in an envelope marked "Spaghetti Luncheon") or at the door.

Today's Readings

First Reading — Isaiah speaks of the Servant whom the Lord upholds; he shall bring forth justice to the nations (Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7).

Psalm — The Lord will bless his people with peace (Psalm 29).

Second Reading — Jesus was anointed by God with the Holy Spirit; he went out healing and doing good (Acts 10:34-38).

Gospel — A voice comes from heaven proclaiming Jesus as the beloved Son, with whom God is well pleased (Matthew 3:13-17).

Food for Thought...

The Call to be Servant of God

Jesus accepted baptism as a sign of communion with us; Ours is a sign of communion with God, as well as with one another. Knowing from Isaiah he was to be called to be servant of God, He was the longed-for son of Israel, the son in whom God was well pleased.

Jesus' baptism's the first revelation of Him as Emanuel, of God an incarnation humble, in the midst of all humanity. It's a story fleshing out what the hymn from scripture teaches us: Though in God's form, Christ did not regard equality with God to be grasped.

By choosing solidarity with us in all of our weaknesses, His baptism depicts Him as one of us, with the confines of human life. We conceive of God as incarnate, sharing all our limitations, submitting to baptism In order to reveal His limitless love.

And a voice came from the heavens saying, "This my beloved son, in whom I am well pleased."

(Phil. 2:6; Matt. 3:17)

Saint Hilary (c. 315-367) January 13

Born in Poitiers, France, whose populace would later elect him bishop, Hilary, married and a father, was converted from paganism to Christianity through his reading of scripture. The focus of his prayerful study was the Prologue to the Gospel according to John, which portrays Jesus as the divine Logos, eternally begotten of the Father. As a result, Hilary became in the words of the biblical scholar Jerome, "the Latin Trumpet against the Arians," heretics who believed Jesus to be merely human, not divine. In defense of Christ's divinity, Hilary was not only eloquent in debate but utterly fearless in the face of relentless persecution and even exile. Thus by the witness of his own discipleship, Hilary taught that faith in Jesus as the divine Son of God has consequences. Reflecting on Jesus' challenge to his disciples, "You are the salt of the earth" (Matthew 5:13), Hilary notes that, as salt both preserves from corruption and adds savor to food, so must the faithful disciple bear a witness that, by word and example, leads others to immortality and virtuous living.
