Thoughts from Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today we begin the first Sunday of Lent. Historically, Lent began as a way for Catholics to remind themselves of the value of repentance. The austerity of the Lenten season was seen as similar to how people in the Old Testament fasted and repented in sackcloth and ashes (Esther 4:1-3; Jeremiah 6:26 and Daniel 9:3). However, over the centuries Lenten observances have developed a much more “sacramental” value. Many Catholics now believe that giving something up for Lent is away to attain God’s blessing.

The Bible at times teaches that grace cannot be earned, so grace is “the gift of righteousness” (Romans 5:17); but we as Catholics believe that you can pray for a certain grace that you don’t have, and God will grant it to you (cf. Letter of James). Also, Jesus taught that fasting should be done discreetly: “When you fast, do not look somber as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces to show men and women that they are fasting. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, so that it will not be obvious to men and women that you are fasting, but only to your Father, who is unseen.” (Mathew 6:16-1)

We fast during Lent because fasting can be a good thing, and God is pleased when we repent from our sinful habits. There is absolutely nothing wrong with setting aside some time to focus on Jesus’ death and resurrection. However, repenting of sin is something we should be doing every day of the year, not just the 40 days of Lent. If a Christian wishes to observe Lent, he or she is free to do so, but the key is to focus on repenting of sin and consecrating oneself to God. Lent should not be a time of boasting of one’s sacrifice or trying to earn God’s favor or increasing His love. God’s love for us could not be greater than it already is.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. Catholics ages 18 to 59 should fast on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday. Fasting on these days means that we can have only one full, meatless meal. Some food can be taken at the other regular mealtimes if necessary, but combined they should be less than a full meal. Liquids are allowed at any time, but no solid food should be consumed between meals. Those that are excused from fast and abstinence outside the age limits include the physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also excluded are pregnant or nursing women. In all cases, common sense should prevail, and ill persons should not further jeopardize their health by fasting. God bless you during this sacred season of Lent!

— Fr. George

Lenten Regulations

(from Ash Wednesday, to the Paschal Triduum)

Fasting and Abstaining From Meat

One of our Lenten Practices uniting us with Catholics around the world!
Fridays during Lent are days of abstaining from meat. Good Friday is a day of abstaining from meat and fasting.

Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics 14 years old and older on Ash Wednesday and on all the Fridays of Lent.

Fasting is to be observed on Ash
Wednesday by all Catholics who are 18 years of age but not yet 59. Those who are bound by this may take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

The special Paschal fast, as well as abstinence, are prescribed for Good Friday and encouraged for Holy Saturday.

500 Club Certificates

Certificates are $25 each and will be included in every weekly drawing from now through October 19th, 2020. The prize each week is $25 except for three weeks when the prize is $500. If we sell all 500 certificates, there will be a 4th drawing for $500. Purchase forms are available in the back of church.
This is a fun way to support the parish Pass the word. Thank you!!!

Today's Readings

First Reading — The man and the woman ate the fruit of the one tree that God had told them to avoid, and their shame overtook them (Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7).

Psalms — Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned (Psalm 51).

Second Reading — Death reigned from Adam to Moses, but now grace and life abound in Christ Jesus (Romans 5:12-19 [12, 17-19]).

Gospel — Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit and there he fasted for forty days and forty nights (Matthew 4:1-11).

Praying for the Sick In Our Parish

Coletta Ali, Eloise Brown, Lillian Czaplicki, Scarlett Evans, Dwayne and Paula Evans, Dave Grayson, Phillip Jones, Paul Koko, Kathleen Kroker, Georgine Mullen, Dee Norman, Kathy Paoli, Albert Parker, Jr., Raul Perez, Jennifer Saldukas, and Annette Vargas.

The name of your close relative will remain on this list for four weeks. After that you will have to call us again to reinstate it into the list. If you wish to include a name of a sick member of your family here, please call Amanda at the rectory during office hours. Thank you.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

MARCH 8TH — 2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Genesis 12: 1-4

The first 11 chapters of Genesis have very little historical foundation but they teach religious truths in parable form. Today we begin the 12th chapter which contains stories with identifiable historical roots. The first of these is the call of Abraham, whose original name was "Abram".

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 1:8-10

The second letter to Timothy, although probably written some 30 years after Paul's death, was written in his name. This was an acceptable practice at that time. It was not a forgery, but an acknowledged way of continuing someone's spirit and authority. In this passage, the author encourages the readers in the face of trials.

Communion & Anointing of the Sick

Please call the Rectory at 708-386-8077 to let us know if you or a member of your family is in need of the sacrament of anointing of the sick or would like to have Holy Communion brought to your house or nursing home or both.

Bible Study - Mondays 9:30 AM

Our Bible Study group meets on Mondays ~ 9:30—11:00 AM in the Rectory.

We use the New Collegeville Bible Commentary from Collegeville, Minnesota. We read the scriptures, weekly psalms, and the commentary. Then we discuss it. It is an enlightening experience and is totally free.

Remember a Loved One

We have the 2020 Mass Book open for your requests. Come to the Rectory to request your Masses. Remember your loved ones or any other special occasion. Mass intentions are only $10.00.

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future.

Fair Trade: Next Weekend

The Fair Trade Sale is scheduled for March 7-8 after all of the Masses. Please support Fair Trade with your purchase of Coffees, Teas, and Chocolates. Thank you.

Signs of Lent

We've Emptied the Holy Water Fonts

The holy water fonts are dry as a reminder of the barrenness of the desert where Jesus spent 40 days, and our own empty hearts when we sin.

Imagine our joy when we celebrate the refreshing life of resurrection when on Easter the blessed water will remind us of the renewing waters of our Baptism!

Reminder

To all organizational leaders and head ministers:

Please let Fr. George know if you have any announcements for the weekend masses at the beginning of the previous week. His e-mail is gomwando@gmail.com. You can also e-mail Amanda at: apomaredascsoffice@comcast.net. Thank you.

The women of Chicago's west side and of the near-west suburbs are invited to gather for winter spirituality!

Shelby Boblick is facilitating the discussion, and we'll use as a catalyst In God's Womb, a spiritual memoir by Edwina Gateley. "I am here because of my journey, which has brought me to this point after more than 40 years of working as a Catholic laywoman in the Church. This series will be an introduction to Edwina Gateley whose life has been described by Publisher's Weekly as "fascinating – an exceptional blend of contemplation and action". Edwina is a poet, theologian, artist, writer, and lay minister. She is a single mom and has been described as a modern day mystic and prophet.

Edwina Gateley will facilitate a half-day retreat at St. Catherine of Siena-St. Lucy Church on Saturday, April 18 beginning at 9 am. It will be a special opportunity...not to be missed...open to all men and women...and may be one of the last mid western US opportunities to hear Edwina speak before she retires to Ireland.

Shelby will supply the books each week for this series. It matters not at all if you miss a week or 2. Drop-ins are encouraged! We are offering duplicate sessions each Monday: one at 1:00 p.m. and another at 7:30 p.m. Sessions last no longer than 90 minutes.

Mon., March 30: The Streets; Genesis House

Mon., April 6: Motherhood; The House of Sophia

Mon., April 13: Public Speaking; The Answer

We meet in the gathering area of St. Catherine of Siena-St. Lucy Church at 38 N. Austin Blvd., Oak Park, IL. The church is handicapped accessible. Only the doors on Austin Blvd. will be open. There are assistive listening devices available.

Questions or concerns? Call Shelby Boblick at 630-240-2765.

Stations of the Cross At St. Catherine-St. Lucy

The Stations of the Cross is held every Friday at 7:00 PM in Church through Lent. Won't you please pick up your little 30 minute cross and come and pray with us, as we honor Jesus Christ and thank Him for accepting a painful death on His Cross for us.

This Weekend Second Collection is for Aid for Central & Eastern Europe

This week, our second collection supports the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. Your donation today helps restore the Church and build the future in more than 20 countries still struggling to recover from Communist rule. Funds from this collection support reconstruction, education, formation. For more information, please visit www.usccb.org/ccce, and poverty outreach. Please be generous.

Archdiocese of Chicago

2020 Annual Catholic Appeal

Come, follow me... and heal our world

The Annual Catholic Appeal theme, "Come, follow me... and heal our world," was selected to remind us to continue to answer Jesus' call to follow Him in thought, word and deed by providing the necessary contribution to fund ministries and services to share God's love with many others in our parish and our archdiocese. All parishes communities participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our parishes, schools, and ministries to deliver needed services. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

Lenten Retreat

The Treasured Aramaic Words of Jesus

This Coming Saturday, March 7th, 10 to 4

Shem Center for InterfaithSpirituality 708 N. Harvey Ave.
Oak Park, IL 60302*"Whole, ripe and complete are those who soften what is rigid within, they shall receive strength from the universe."*

(Translation from the Aramaic text of the phrase more commonly known as, "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.")

Is it possible to uncover deeper, more profound meanings in the words of Jesus recorded in the Bible? His words are familiar to us in translation from Greek and Latin texts. Other thought provoking, meanings can be discovered in ancient texts written in the Aramaic language he spoke.

Silence, contemplation, and participant sharing will contribute to experiencing the deep, abundant, and fertile wisdom found in the words of Jesus. The mantric sounds of Aramaic words are taught through chant and movement within a circle of prayer. Contact Br. Joseph Kilikevce, OP for registration details.

*Food for Thought...A Devil of a Story

Paul got it right in Romans, where he marked the arrival of Original Sin. The disobedience of one man sparked the future, where the many—Adam's kin—were plunged into the dark.

Paul then reminds us how God's flowing grace, and Jesus' precious gift ignite the light; Where one man brought sin to us all encase, the Son's obedience brought us to day from night. Hear the song of the lark!

Always one to plug away, the devil showed Jesus all the riches of the earth, offered them all at the highest level. Jesus told him what He thought them worth:
The Lord, your God, shall you worship
And Him alone shall you serve.

Strength Against Temptation

The first Sunday of the season of Lent always includes a Gospel account of the temptation of the Lord Jesus in the desert by the devil. This year, the story is set against the backdrop of the first reading from Genesis, which recounts the very first temptation by the devil. That story is set in a garden of delight. The Gospel story is set in the desert.

As believers, we know that temptation comes our way in our own gardens of delight as well as the deserts of our lives. As Lent begins, our attention is drawn to that temptation within each of us to become like God—we want control, power, and answers to all of life's difficult questions. As communities of faith, we are given this season of repentance so that we can join our hearts with others on the difficult journey of conversion. We look to God and to one another for strength against temptation.
