Thoughts from Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today we celebrate another important feast following the Blessed Trinity that we celebrated last weekend. Today's Solemnity is called the Most Holy Body and blood of Jesus Christ. We have been missing the celebration the Body of Christ (Eucharist) that brings us together daily as our community due to the outbreak of Corona virus.

The Solemnity of the Most Blood Jesus is also known as the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. Corpus Christi is translated from Latin to mean "Body of Christ." This solemnity originated in France during the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. This Solemnity calls us to focus on two manifestations of the Body of Christ: the Holy Eucharist and the Church however the primary purpose of this Solemnity is to focus our attention on the Eucharist. Our opening prayer at Mass today calls our attention to Jesus' suffering and death and our worship of Him, especially in the Eucharist. At every Mass our attention is called to the Eucharist and the Real Presence of Christ in it. The secondary focus of this Solemnity is upon the Body of Christ as it is present in the Church. The Church is called the Body of Christ because of the intimate communion which Jesus shares with his disciples (us). This image helps us to keep the focus on the unity and the diversity of the Church. The Solemnity of Corpus Christi is sometimes used as an opportunity for public Eucharistic processions that serves as a sign of common faith and adoration. Our worship of Jesus in His Body and Blood calls us to offer to God our Father a pledge of undivided love and an offering of ourselves to the service of others.

It is important to note that the Mass not only provides us with the opportunity of offering the sacrificial gift of Jesus to God but also the opportunity to offer the gift of ourselves, our obedience, and love to God together with the perfect gift which Jesus offers. All of us want to offer to God the gift of ourselves as a suitable and beautiful gift in return for all he has given us. All of us, deep down, I think desire manner to worship and thank God and make atonement for our sins in a worthy and acceptable manner. Yet, we feel that we don't have a suitable or worthy gift to return to God, especially in regard to the gift of ourselves, sinful creatures that we are. That's why God has provided us with the sacrificial gift of Jesus, with his holiness and perfect love. By itself our gift to God seems to count for little but, when we offer ourselves to God in and through and with Jesus, our gift and sacrifice becomes truly pleasing and acceptable.

Finally, I welcome you to church this weekend as we begin gradually re-opening the Church for Eucharistic services. Please be patient as together we learn to adjust to changes that pertains Mass attendance in combating the spread of Corona virus. May God bless you always.

— Fr. George

Food from Heaven

God sustained the people of Israel for forty years in the desert with manna sent down from heaven, and Moses doesn't want them to forget it. God brought forth water from stone for them to drink, and Moses doesn't want them to forget this, either. And Moses tells them—twice—that the food that God sent was a food that neither they nor their ancestors before them had ever experienced before.

Jesus too speaks of food come down from heaven, food that the Jewish people had never experienced before. Recalling the manna in the desert, Jesus doesn't want them to forget it either, explaining that he is the food and drink of eternal life. And Paul reiterates to the Corinthians and to all of us that in the bread and in the cup, we share in the body and blood of Christ.

Faith and Fellowship

This past year, I was blessed to take part in Faith and Fellowship that turned out to be truly a life-changing ministry. This was part of my training at Catholic Theological Union for ministry as a Franciscan brother.

At first, I was very hesitant to enter into the unknown. But God had called me to serve where, at first, I did not believe I would belong. Everyone I met at SCSL parish, at Central Plaza, and in the Thursday Afternoon group helped me feel welcomed and comfortable. Little would I know that God was calling me to a ministry that would change both my life and ministry! Over the past year, Faith and Fellowship has been a life-changing experience.

Praying for the Sick In Our Parish

Coletta Ali, Michael Ballew, Eloise Brown, Dave Grayson, Phillip Jones, Paul Koko, Kathleen Kroker, Georgine Mullen, Marian McCurry, Jeff Nesbitt, Dee Norman, Irma Monteverde, Sr. Maureen Sauer, Dolores Sungail, and Annette Varga.

The name of your close relative will remain on this list for four weeks. After that you will have to call us again to reinstate it into the list. If you wish to include a name of a sick member of your family here, please call Amanda at the rectory during office hours. Thank you.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

JUNE 21, 2020 — 12TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13

The prophet Jeremiah lived about 600 years before Christ. He prophesied that Israel, because of its unfaithfulness to God, would be defeated by Babylon. When this began to happen, many of his friends and neighbors denounced him as a traitor and turned on him.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-15

Paul letter's to the Romans is his most detailed and important theological work. His purpose in this passage is not to teach about original sin, but to contrast Adam and Christ. From Adam we inherited a strong pull toward sin. From Christ (the "new Adam") we received a gift that is comparably stronger: Divine Grace.

Response of Cardinal Cupich on the death of George Floyd: (6/3/20)

The past nights I have watched in great personal pain as the pent-up anger of our people caught fire across our country. I saw the city where I was born, the cities where I have lived, the city I pastor now, catch embers from the city where I was educated and burn. Was I horrified at the violence? Yes. But was I surprised? No.

As the saying goes, if you're not outraged, you're not paying attention. What did we expect when we learned that in Minneapolis, a city often hailed as a model of inclusivity, the price of a black life is a counterfeit twenty-dollar bill? When we added another name to the list of those murdered for being black or for caring about the marginalized?

I will not pretend to speak with any authority about the challenges people of color experience in our society. I do not share the fear they put on when they and their children leave their homes every day. I do not know what it means to be "other." But I know there is a way to fix it. And the fix begins when we stop talking about the proportionality of "their" response and start talking about the proportionality of "ours." Surely a nation that could put a man in space, his safety assured by the brilliance of black women, can create a fair legal system, equitable education and employment opportunities and ready access to health care. Laws do not solve problems, but they create a system where racism in all its forms is punished and playing fields are leveled.

The COVID-19 pandemic has been called a great equalizer. It has been even more a great revealer of societal cancers as deadly as the virus. As others have pointed out, health insecurity kills, and poverty is poison. We can and must make a society that views the soaring of a child's potential with more joy than the soaring of a rocket.

I stand ready to join religious, civic, labor and business leaders in coming together to launch a new effort to bring about recovery and reconciliation in our city. We do not need a study of the causes and effects. Those answers can be found on the shelves of government offices and academic institutions across our burning nation. No, we need to take up the hard work of healing the deep wound that has afflicted our people since the first slave ships docked on this continent. And we need to start today.
