Thoughts from Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Two Sundays ago we read about how Jesus commissioned His twelve apostles to go out and spread the Good news of the Gospel. Last Sunday we heard some of Jesus' instructions and warning to them to be careful while spreading the Gospel News. This week we hear the conclusion of those instructions.

In the commissioning of the disciples, Jesus advised them to offer no resistance to one who is intending to do harm to them. He told them not to be afraid of anyone when proclaiming the word of God especially to the one who can destroy the body but not the soul. The message of Jesus' is still applicable to us and the world we live in today. Again, and again, we have heard about the persecutions of Christians that are a minority especially in countries where Muslims are a majority. In these countries, the Christians have been targeted because of their faith; they have become soft targets to Muslim extremists who continue to kill them even as I write this article.

Towards the end of the second century, Tertullian, said that, "the blood of the martyrs is the seed of Christianity". This means that as more and more followers of Christ were killed, the church continued to grow and expand. One will think that the opposite, will be true, i.e. the persecution of Christians will halt the spread of Christianity. It wasn't the case during the time of Apostles or Tertullian, and I will think it is not the case even today to stop Christianity by killing or persecuting Christians. No effort of any human being, who wants to destroy the Church, will ever succeed. Jesus assures us that whoever loses his life for his sake will find it. This is the reason why I think summertime is a wonderful time when our busy-ness is not so demanding even though we are not certain whether the vaccine for treating Corona virus will be discovered to a read a spiritual book. Summertime can be good for recreation as well as time for reflection. May be this summer time is a time that you can spend reading a book/s, especially the ones that turn your thoughts toward God. What about some quiet time spent in reflection about God's presence in our lives?

In case you have some time to spend, do it thoughtfully, quietly, and reflecting in which way you can pay attention to God and what He has to say to you. Ask yourself what's important in your life and how important God is to you. After all, He made you to know Him, love Him and serve Him, and to be happy with Him forever in heaven. That is why today's Gospel is challenging us to do, to love Him always. Being Jesus' disciple is not an invitation for glory. It is an invitation for sacrifice and suffering in the presence of powerful opposition. Jesus never promised us an easy life if we become his disciples. In fact, being Jesus' disciple is one of the hardest things we can do. We are not to fear the power of our opponents. They can kill our physical bodies (which will die anyway), but they can't kill our souls. Only God can kill our souls. We must fear God. God will have eternity to right the wrongs people inflict. Evildoers will be punished for all eternity. God bless you.

— Fr. George

Christian Hospitality

Day in and day out, we are required to make judgment calls informed by tough, durable, serviceable Christian love. We do what we can do, and God takes notice. God is in charge of rewards, and a glass of water will do when that is what we have to offer with a glad and open heart.

Paul gives us a clear theology for the missionary work we do whenever anybody is close at hand. He reminds us that our work, our ministry, is carried on in concert with Christ. We have been baptized into his death and life. In any given moment both life and death are there, a kind of play of shadow and light. Sometimes it's difficult to tell where shadow leaves off and light begins. God will take care of that, too

Today's Second Collection

This week, we will take the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. For more information, contact: www.usccb.org/peters-pence. Please be generous.

Faith and Fellowship

Well, it's Monday afternoon and normally it would be time to start setting up the Rectory basement meeting room for the evening's Faith and Fellowship session. Three large tables against the walls for supplies and materials to be displayed; three tables, four chairs at each, where people will assemble puzzles, work with clay, create art, be at peace with quiet music, simply chill together. Then the far end of the room: chairs arranged in a circle around a small table with Bible, plants, and candle. Just the right number of chairs for the number of participants. Lamps positioned for soft ambience. Kitchen organized: pop chilled; water heating for warm beverages; snacks ready; place mats, plates, and mugs counted out. It takes a couple of hours, and it's a pain in the neck.

But now that we no longer fill that space with Faith and Fellowship – Monday afternoons seem sad, and we're looking forward when we can once again have that sweet pain in the neck!

Weekly Offering

Summer Stewardship

A gentle reminder that our stewardship of our parish does not go on vacation! If you go on vacation or your plans keep you from being present here on the weekends, please try to "make up" your regular offering another weekend.

We understand that every one is not ready to attend Mass directly in the Parish. Bit many families are inadvertently missing their weekly commitment to support our parish. So we recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts — whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections. Once you sign up, you will be able to manage your giving preferences at any time, and you won't have to worry about writing a check or carrying cash to church each week. You can manage it anywhere you have an internet connection 24/7.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org to be able to find the link to GiveCentral

Praying for the Sick In Our Parish

Coletta Ali, Michael Ballew, Eloise Brown, Vivi De-Leon, Blanca Diaz, Gladys Evans, Dave Grayson, Phillip Jones, Paul Koko, Kathleen Kroker, Georgine Mullen, Marian McCurry, Jeff Nesbitt, Irma Monteverde, Dolores Sungail, and Annette Varga.

The name of your close relative will remain on this list for four weeks. After that you will have to call us again to reinstate it into the list. If you wish to include a name of a sick member of your family here, please call Amanda at the rectory during office hours. Thank you.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

JULY 5, 2020 — 14TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Zechariah 9:9-10

In the last centuries before Christ, the Jewish people hoped for a triumphant Messiah king. The prophet Zechariah spoke instead of a Messiah who would come not in splendor and glory with horses and chariots, but rather in meekness and peace, riding a common work animal. All four evangelists will later apply this passage to the entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem several days before his arrest.

Second Reading: Romans 8:9, 11-13

Today we will begin five Sundays of readings from chapter eight of Paul's letter to the Romans, a chapter which emphasizes the role of the Holy Spirit. Paul wants us to remember that the Spirit who will raise our bodies on the last day is the same Spirit who inspires us to holiness every day. Today Paul offers a sharp contrast between life in the flesh (meaning life prone to sin) and life in the Spirit.

Remember a Loved One

We have the 2020 Mass Book open for your requests. Come to the Rectory to request your Masses. Remember your loved ones or any other special occasion. Mass intentions are only $10.00.

Prayer in a Time of Pandemic

O God of compassion, your people are anxious in this time of pandemic. Send your Holy Spirit among us to dispel our fears.

We cry out to you in our confusion; comfort us in our affliction. Grant our leaders wisdom to guide us. Strengthen and sustain those who are ill, and be with those who care for them.

Help us to travel this road in solidarity with our neighbors, with our eyes fixed on the salvation promised us through the death and Resurrection of your Son, who is Lord forever and ever.

Amen.

Food for Thought*The Reality of Our Mission

As the disciples got prepared to undertake their mission, individually they wondered: "Am I ready for this task?" They would go out on their own, sharing the good news, souls gleaning, to communicate the gospel message. Nothing's more important than to bring its goal to fruition. "But Lord, are we ready, capable and worthy?" they would ask. You are, and it will cost you your life, but give you life's meaning. "You must take up your cross, and follow me."

Jesus said to His chosen disciples they can like Him be:
 Work to show alternatives to ways that things have always been.
 Our mission is to prove that forces working against life are doomed;
 Act on this gospel truth, and it becomes real.
 Our dedication will lead people to see Christ's love as key.
 Jesus said: "Who receives you, receives me," and quiets evil's din.
 The wounds and divisions of the world must be healed...hatred's ballooned.
 Love fits our mission, and there's no limit.

"Whoever gives these little ones a cup of cold water to drink...shall not lose his reward."
