Thoughts From Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This coming Saturday and Sunday we celebrate the lives of three important saints: Saint James, Saints Joachim and Anne, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Saint James feast fall on Saturday and Saints Joachim and Anne memorial falls on Sunday the day our Lord's resurrection. Sunday is always reserved for the Lord's celebrations and therefore takes prevalence and we cannot celebrate this memorial.

Saints are ordinary human beings who have followed their call of being a good Christian. They are like us in everything and nobody is born a saint, but we are all born with a potency of becoming saints. The saints are there to show us that everything is possible under the grace of God. Grace is a free gift that is given by God to us but has no effects on our lives unless it is accepted. God does not impose grace on us because He respects our freedom. Once grace has been accepted, it becomes transformative, i.e. changes our lives to be in conformity with that of Jesus like Saints James (feast day Saturday) and (saints Joachim and Anne-Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary-Sunday). St. James was an Apostle of Christ and we come to know him through the Gospels of: (Matthew 4, 21-22; Mark 1, 19-20; and Luke 5, 10-11). We are told in these Gospels that James and his brother John were fishermen, and sons of Zebedee. They were partners with Simon Peter and called by Jesus from mending their nets beside the Sea of Galilee. All the twelve Apostles are recorded in the Gospels of: (Matthew 10, 2-4; Mark 3, 14-19; and Luke 6, 13-16). All the three Gospels show us that James and John were the first four Apostles to be called by Jesus. James and John were present at the healing of Peter's mother-in-law (Mark 1, 29), and at the raising of Jairus's daughter (Mark 5, 37; Luke 8, 51). They are all described in private conversation with Jesus on the Mount of Olives (Mark 13, 3). They were also present, with Peter (but not Andrew), at the Transfiguration, a key event in Jesus's life (Matthew 17, 1-13; Mark 9, 2-8, and Luke 9, 28-36), and again, the same three disciples are called apart from the others in Gethsemane (Matthew 26, 37; and Mark 14, 33). On Sunday, we also celebrate the memorial of the Saints Joaquim and Anne. By tradition, Joaquim and Anne are considered to be the names of the parents of Mary, the Mother of God. We have no historical evidence of any elements of their lives, including their names. Any stories about Mary's father and mother come to us through legend and tradition. All these saints and countless saints accepted God's grace and shows us the way to heaven.

Let us ask them to pray for us and as their example of life show us how we can live the virtues of our Gospel calling. It is not impossible to be a saint and we do have so many saints that we know in our communities who live their vocation as Christians. These saints were as the Gospels tell today friends of God and enemy of the devil. May we try to follow their example always. God bless you.

— Fr. George

Good Seeds

Today Jesus continues to speak to his followers using parables. What a rich treasure we are given today in three parables about the kingdom of heaven! The kingdom is likened to a man sowing good seed in his field, a mustard seed, and yeast mixed with flour. As they did last week, today the disciples press Jesus for an interpretation of one of the parables—the parable of the man sowing good seed. Lest we think that these parables are simply amusing little anecdotes, Jesus' interpretation should be seen for what it is—a warning. Wailing and grinding of teeth in a fiery furnace await those who are children of the evil one. This parable points to the struggle for today's believer. Sometimes, through sin, we sow weeds and prevent the love of Christ from blossoming. Let today's Gospel help put us back on track. Let us recommit ourselves to preparing for the last days, the harvest, by blossoming as the good seeds we were created in love to be.

Mission Cooperation Plan

Each summer the Mission Office of the Archdiocese of Chicago facilitates the Mission Cooperation Plan, an opportunity for more than 100 international missionary dioceses, congregations, and organizations to share their stories and invite support from our faith communities. This year, although travel is impossible during a pandemic, the needs are greater than ever for communities of faith in under-resourced areas throughout our world.

Please consider how your church can participate in this year's adapted Mission Cooperation Plan.

Mass Times

Please note that all public liturgies in the Archdiocese of Chicago are limited due to the COVID pandemic. To attend one of the open Masses at St. Catherine—St. Lucy you must pre-register through our Sign-up Genius reservation system. A new link to the sign-up page is sent out each week for the next weekend's Masses. To receive this link, please contact Amanda at 708-386-8077 during office hours or via e-mail at: apomaredascsloffice@comcast.net

Pass the Link to your Friends!

By just forwarding to friends who may not be on the church email list, particularly if they haven't seen them in church since we reopened. Sometimes people have updated their email addresses and not updated all their contacts.

NOTICE: We wanted to let everyone know that if you sign-up for Mass after Friday, they will not be on the sign-up sheets.

2021 Mass Book Open

If you have a loved one who is ill or has passed away ... or any special occasion or petition you'd like to bring before the Lord ... consider offering your prayers at a Mass.

Our book is open for personal intentions for the remainder of this year and for the 2021 year.

500-CLUB WINNER

The $500.00 winner for this weekend of July 19th will be announced next weekend in the bulletin of July 26th.

500 Club Certificates

THANK YOU, THANK YOU,
THANK YOU!!

We are delighted to let you know that we have sold all of the 500 Club certificates available for the 2019-2020 season. All 500 certificates are eligible to be the winner in each weekend drawing through October 18th, 2020. The prize each weekend is $25 except for the July 19th weekend when the prize will be $500!!! This is possible because we sold all 500 of our certificates. Thank you for your enthusiastic response to our recent mailing.

In August we will do the mailing for the 2020-2021 season which begins October 25th of this year. In the meantime, you are always welcome to make a straight donation to the 500 Club which would help offset our postage costs or to the parish to use toward general operating expenses.

Peace, wellness, prayers, and gratitude!

Weekly Offering

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Summer Stewardship

A gentle reminder that our stewardship of our parish does not go on vacation! If you go on vacation or your plans keep you from being present here on the weekends, please try to "make up" your regular offering another weekend.

We understand that every one is not ready to attend Mass directly in the Parish. But many families are inadvertently missing their weekly commitment to support our parish. So we recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts — whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections. Once you sign up, you will be able to manage your giving preferences at any time, and you won't have to worry about writing a check or carrying cash to church each week. You can manage it anywhere you have an internet connection 24/7.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org and under Steward & Giving tab you will be able to find the link to GiveCentral

Praying for the Sick In Our Parish

Coletta Ali, Michael Ballew, Eloise Brown, Vivi De-Leon, Blanca Diaz, Gladys Evans, Dave Grayson, Theresa Hancock, Phillip Jones, Paul Koko, Kathleen Kroker, Marian McCurry, Jeff Nesbitt, Irma Monteverde, Dolores Sungail, Annette Varga, and Bern Wheel.

The name of your close relative will remain on this list for four weeks. After that you will have to call us again to reinstate it into the list. If you wish to include a name of a sick member of your family here, please call Amanda at the rectory during office hours. Thank you.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

JULY 26, 2020 -- 17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Kings 3:5, 7-12

King Solomon ruled about 950 years before Christ. His wisdom was legendary. Today's reading describes an event from early in Solomon's rule that tells how he became a wise person.

Second Reading: Romans 8:28-30

As we continue our readings from the eighth chapter of Paul's letter to the Romans, we will today hear Paul use the word predestined. This word does not mean that individuals are locked into a destiny over which they have no control. Rather, it means that in Christ, God provides abundant grace for everyone.

Remember a Loved One

We have the 2020 Mass Book available with weekend and weekdays masses. Please call us to request your Masses. Remember your loved ones or any other special occasion. Mass intentions are only $10.00.

Communion & Anointing of the Sick

Please call the Rectory at 708-386-8077 to let us know if you or a member of your family is in need of the sacrament of anointing of the sick or would like to have Holy Communion brought to your house or nursing home or both.

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future. —Father George

Update Personal Info

Please DO NOT FORGET to update us with your new phone numbers, e-mail address, or any other change of status. Please contact Amanda at 708-386-8077 or via e-mail at: apomaredascsloffice@comcast.net

Faith and Fellowship

A Gift of Pride

Several weeks ago, on Independence Day, we had an opportunity to reflect on what it means to be an American – and under present circumstances, that isn't necessarily a simple thing. It was, however, a reminder of something that had happened here at St. Catherine—St. Lucy back in February. One of our Faith and Fellowship Partners – Eric, originally from Mexico – had been invited to carry the American flag in the Entrance Procession of the celebration of the African-American Heritage Mass. Afterwards, one of the Catechists asked him how he had felt. Eric said, “I felt proud. I felt like a soldier defending my country.” This is a guy who doesn’t get a lot of opportunities to know pride: formerly homeless, significantly disabled by mental illness, and now more isolated than ever by the Covid-19 quarantine at Central Plaza. But in his heart Eric can go to that place of pride, and look forward to returning to a parish and a program that gave him that gift.

Parish Events

Until further notice, all events in the church and school are still canceled as a precaution against the spread of the COVID-19.

Our parish office is still closed to the public. However, we are checking our mail, emails and answering your calls.

Our Pastor will observe all health precautions and distancing as we minister to you.

Please contact or email us if we can be of any assistance to you at 708-386-8077 Monday-Friday, from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm

For emergencies, call 708-560-6109 after hours.

SAINT SHARBEL MAKHLŪF (1828-1898) July 24

The convenience store owner chatted animatedly in Arabic with coworkers, but hardly at all with his American clientele. So soon after 9/11, he probably figured, with my accent, the less said, the better. That changed when an American customer recognized Saint Sharbel's portrait on the wall: "So you're Lebanese Maronites!" The owner was happily incredulous: "You know our saint?" "Not at first," the customer admitted. "But we help the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, and their magazine published that picture and called Sharbel the 'Paradoxical Artisan of Peace.' " "Everyone thinks we're Muslims," said the owner, "and some of my workers are. Saint Sharbel helps us live together in peace!" A hermit for twenty-three years, little is known of Sharbel's life. He died after suffering a stroke while celebrating the liturgy. Miracles attributed to his intercession number in the thousands, and in war-torn Lebanon, Catholics, Orthodox, and Muslims pray together where his incorrupt body is entombed. How lovely if after our passing, we too could be remembered for having brought very different people to the one God, together in peace.
