Thoughts From Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our reading today comes from the book of Kings that talk of Prophet Elijah. Elijah is one of the most interesting and colorful people in the Bible as God used him during an important time in Israel's history to oppose a wicked king and bring revival to the land of Israel. Elijah's ministry marked the beginning of the end of Baal worship in Israel but his life was filled with turmoil also. At times, Elijah was bold and decisive, and at other times fearful and tentative. Elijah knew both the power of God and the depths of depression.

Our reading, talks on how God told Elijah to go stand at the entrance of the cave in which the LORD will pass through. While Elijah was still in the cave, a great and strong wind tore the mountains and broke in pieces the rocks but surprisingly the Lord was not in the wind. After the wind, an earthquake broke out but the LORD was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake, a fire broke out, but the LORD was not in the fire also. Finally after the fire, there was a sound of a low tiny whisper. When Elijah heard this sound, he wrapped his face with his cloak and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. And behold, there came a voice that asked Elijah what he was doing in the cave? Why do you think Elijah was hiding in a cave? The answer is fear. The bible says that Ahab had told Jezebel his wife what Elijah had done to the prophets of Baal and Asherah. Elijah had killed all the false prophets and called down fire and rain from heaven to consume them. When Jezebel heard what Elijah done, she sent a messenger to Elijah with a warning message that she was going to kill him. This is why Elijah was hiding in the cave for fear of Jezebel.

When Elijah stopped focusing on the fear of what men and women could do and centered his feelings on God, he heard God's voice. Eventually, Elijah was rescued from the cave and was taken up to heaven in a whirlwind (2Kings2:1-11). I don't know all the many reasons for finding yourself in a cave but I just know if it could happen to a mighty prophet of God like Elijah, it can happen to you and as it also happened to King David while he was running from Saul. As was true for Elijah, when we focus on the noise and the tumult of life in this world, we can get our eyes off of the LORD. However, if we listen for His still, small voice and walk in obedience to His Word, we find victory and reward in God. Each great person in the bible has a lesson for us to learn and can aid our walk as believers of Christ. Elijah struggled with typical human frailties, yet he was used by mighty God. It can be encouraging to remember that, when we struggle with faith, we are in good company. Elijah the prophet experienced such a struggle! One of the greatest prophets of all time had just called down fire from heaven, killed over 400 false prophets, and outrun King Ahab's chariot—a feat that would have been the envy of any Olympic gold-medalist (1Kings 18:36-38). Yet we find Elijah hiding in a cave, depressed and asking for death (1Kings 19:3-5). After all those miracles, he gave in to fear and doubt because a wicked woman hated him (1 kings 19:2). During times of stress and exhaustion, we can easily forget all that God has done for us as it was the case for Elijah. God bless you.

— Fr. George

The Presence of God

After the miracle of Jesus walking on water, the disciples exclaimed, "Truly, you are the Son of God" (Matthew 14:33). Most Christians will probably never experience such a dramatic miracle. Like Elijah, we await the manifestation of God in other moments. Perhaps the biggest challenge for the believer is to be constantly attuned to the possible presence of God in the everyday events of life. This is a stance that takes some people years to develop. Others seem to find the Lord easily in the simple things. As the week unfolds, let us look for the presence of God in the little things around us.

It is I; do not be afraid. Perhaps, like Elijah, we will be surprised at what we find. And, like the disciples, we can add our voice to the confession, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Weekly Offering

Summer Stewardship

A gentle reminder that our stewardship of our parish does not go on vacation! If you go on vacation or your plans keep you from being present here on the weekends, please try to “make up” your regular offering another weekend.

We understand that every one is not ready to attend Mass directly in the Parish. But many families are inadvertently missing their weekly commitment to support our parish. So we recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts — whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections. Once you sign up, you will be able to manage your giving preferences at any time, and you won't have to worry about writing a check or carrying cash to church each week. You can manage it anywhere you have an internet connection 24/7.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org and under Steward & Giving tab you will be able to find the link to GiveCentral

The name of your close relative will remain on this list for four weeks. After that you will have to call us again to reinstate it into the list. If you wish to include a name of a sick member of your family here, please call Amanda at the rectory during office hours. Thank you.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

AUGUST 16, 2020 — 20TH
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 56: 1, 6-7

The last part of the book of Isaiah contains the words of a prophet who lived after the Jews returned from exile. Today's passage speaks of salvation being offered to all, regardless of ethnic origin or social condition. Christians have seen in this an anticipation of the message that Jesus will preach.

Second Reading: Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Today's reading is the conclusion of Paul's thoughts about how Jewish people are going to participate in the saving grace of Jesus. Paul was Jewish and he loved his own people. He was disappointed that most of them had not accepted the Gospel. Paul hoped that his success in converting the Gentiles would encourage the Jewish people to take a second look at the message of Jesus.

Remember a Loved One

We have the 2020 Mass Book available with weekend and weekdays masses. Please call us to request your Masses. Remember your loved ones or any other special occasion. Mass intentions are only $10.00.

Communion & Anointing of the Sick

Please call the Rectory at 708-386-8077 to let us know if you or a member of your family is in need of the sacrament of anointing of the sick or would like to have Holy Communion brought to your house or nursing home or both.

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future.

Faith and Fellowship

Meet Erlison

Each year, Faith and Fellowship is blessed with interns from Catholic Theological Union. We are excited to introduce this year's student.

Peace and Good to Everyone!

I'm brother Erlison Campos, a Franciscan Friar from Amazon Region in Brazil. I have been a friar for almost ten years and have been living in Chicago for two years. My house is at Saint Peter's Church in the Loop where I live with twenty-five other friars. I came to Chicago to study theology. However, I didn't speak English, so I spent one year at DePaul University learning the new language. Now I'm a CTU student, where I'm preparing myself to be priest. During this second year, I'm very happy to do my ministry practicum collaborating with Faith and Fellowship.

Before I came to US, I was living in the middle of Amazon Forest among the native people called Munduruku. The religious life and priest vocation in Amazon Region are very few, so, I ask you to pray for me and for all vocation from that region.

Food for Thought

It Takes Faith

God promised Elijah He'd appear to him.

*Finally with a whisper did God's message come;
With God, a genuine relationship is never from compulsion.*

*Salvation comes not through some casual whim,
but from the deepest depths of love, as we plumb
for kindness and peace under God's patient grip, and His gentle propulsion.*

We are taught while young that tests will help us find what we believe of God and of ourselves, and learn about how in this noisy, violent world, we must strive to God's whispers listen.

It takes faith to devote the whole of heart and mind in praying, but it enables us to handle doubt.

*Faith helps us recognize God as storms of life drive,
and to seek salvation's glisten.*

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

(Psalm 85: Refrain)
