Have pity on me, Lord!

Thoughts From Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today's first reading comes from the book of Isaiah and talks about God instructing the prophet to tell His people to do what is right as His salvation was about to come. God's message to prophet Isaiah was universal in nature because it involved foreigners that had joined themselves to God, ministering to Him; loving His name and becoming his servants were as well invited to participate in the salvation that was offered. The foreigners that are mentioned in this reading were non-Jews speakers. Both the Jews and non-Jews were encouraged to come to God's holy mountain, the dwelling place of God on earth.

Similarly, my brothers and sisters in Christ, every day we come to Church as a community gathered to listen to God's teaching coming to us through His inspired Word and share the Eucharistic meal. It is God who nourishes our souls and His salvation is universal. Everyone is invited to participate at the Table of the Lord, and no one should be left behind. When we gather inside the physical building to pray, and share other sacraments, the Church is not merely a building, but an assembly of people gathered to listen to God's teaching and doing his will. The Church is a place of prayer and should be Sacred. When we go to Church, we must go with an attitude of prayer. We must take all our burdens to the Lord in prayer. We must learn to present our petitions to Him as there is great power in the united prayer of the Church. In "Matthew 18:20", we learn that the Church is a place where God dwells spiritually. Wherever two or three are gathered in His name, the Lord will be in their midst. We must go to Church longing to enjoy and experience the presence of God. God must be the focus of our attention and without the presence of God all our activities will be in vain. We must go to Church primarily to experience the presence of God which brings the deepest satisfaction to our hearts. All other attractions of this world are secondary. We must not go to Church merely as a required tradition or just to enjoy music or to meet friends etc. The Church is not an entertainment venue. We must go to Church with a longing to experience the fullness of God's presence.

In the 18th Sunday in Ordinary time, prophet Isaiah told us that all are invited to come freely and enjoy a meal at the Lord's Table. Even those who have money were not invited. God's house is not just for a select few. God tells those who are among His family and those who are outside that He still intends to add still more to His people than those already gathered; people of every nationality and race, social status etc. are all welcome. I know that during this corona pandemic, it is not possible that we can come together and worship, but I think it is a matter of time before the vaccine is found. Once the vaccine is found, we are going to come together and worship normally. Meanwhile, let us pray for our brothers and sisters in Christ who have died due to Covid-19, those that are sick and most importantly those that are working in the care industry. My prayer for you today is that you continue to invite those that are outside to come and worship with us. God bless you.

— Fr. George

Why Pray?

The “foreigners” as Isaiah calls them, the “Gentiles” as Paul calls them, or the “Canaanites” as Matthew calls them are called to worship the one true God in prayer. As we listen to today’s readings, perhaps we are tempted to ask: Why pray? The question is rhetorical; it is tantamount to asking why should friends talk to one another or people in love kiss one another.

Prayer is a way of relating to God, a way of talking to God. The apostles had the opportunity to talk to Jesus in the flesh. We have the opportunity to talk to Jesus Christ in prayer. Our relationship with him must be enthusiastic; it cannot be faint-hearted. John Donne, a fifteenth-century poet, knew what the qualities of good prayer were. Donne asks God to treat him differently from most Christians. The poet does not want God to merely “knock, breathe, shine, and seek to mend,” but also to “break, blow, burn, and make me new” (Holy Sonnets, XIV).

It takes a dynamic faith on our part to come to God in prayer. As Jesus once said, “Knock and the door will be opened to you” (Matthew 7:7). It may take pounding the door down, but if we are as persistent as the woman in today’s Gospel, the results will follow.

500 Club Certificates

Just a reminder that our current season of the 500 Club continues with weekly drawings through October 18th, 2020. It is great to know that we have your support and that we have owners of all 500 certificates for the first time ever!!! Selling all 500 certificates along with a few donations allowed us to reach a profit of almost $9,600 through this fundraiser. We were also able to have a fourth special drawing for $500 on July 19th. Each certificate continues to be eligible to be the winner on any of the remaining weekends and the prize for each of those weekends is $25. Thank you again for your enthusiastic participation, especially as we are not able to resume other previously scheduled fundraising events at this time.

Soon we will do the mailing for the 2020-2021 season of the 500 Club. The new season begins October 25th, 2020. Watch the bulletin and your mail for more information.

Peace, wellness, prayers, and gratitude!

Summer Stewardship

A gentle reminder that our stewardship of our parish does not go on vacation! If you go on vacation or your plans keep you from being present here on the weekends, please try to "make up" your regular offering another weekend.

We understand that every one is not ready to attend Mass directly in the Parish. But many families are inadvertently missing their weekly commitment to support our parish. So we recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts — whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections. Once you sign up, you will be able to manage your giving preferences at any time, and you won't have to worry about writing a check or carrying cash to church each week. You can manage it anywhere you have an internet connection 24/7.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org and under Steward & Giving tab you will be able to find the link to GiveCentral

Praying for the Sick In Our Parish

Coletta Ali, Michael Ballew, Blanca Diaz, Dave Grayson, Theresa Hancock, Phillip Jones, Paul Koko, Kathleen Kroker, Tito Lopez, Marian McCurry, Jeff Nesbitt, Irma Monteverde, Raul Perez, Charles Scott, Annette Varga, and Bern Wheel.

The name of your close relative will remain on this list for four weeks. After that you will have to call us again to reinstate it into the list. If you wish to include a name of a sick member of your family here, please call Amanda at the rectory during office hours. Thank you.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

AUGUST 23, 2020 — 21ST
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 22:19-23

In Jerusalem eight centuries before Christ, God spoke through the Prophet Isaiah who told to address a problem. The ‘master of the palace’—the equivalent of a secretary of state—was a man named Shebna. God says that he is to be demoted because he used this office for his own advantage. We will hear a description of the investiture of Shebna’s successor, Eliakim.

Second Reading: Romans: 11:33-36

Today’s reading concludes a part of Paul’s letter to the Romans in which he agonizes over the fate of Jewish people who have not accepted Christ. Paul simply leaves the matter in God’s hands, and closes with a hymn that talks of the mysterious ways of Divine Providence. You will notice that the ending of this hymn is similar to the way we end every Eucharistic prayer.

Remember a Loved One

We have the 2020 Mass Book available with weekend and weekdays masses. Please call us to request your Masses. Remember your loved ones or any other special occasion. Mass intentions are only $10.00.

Communion & Anointing of the Sick

Please call the Rectory at 708-386-8077 to let us know if you or a member of your family is in need of the sacrament of anointing of the sick or would like to have Holy Communion brought to your house or nursing home or both.

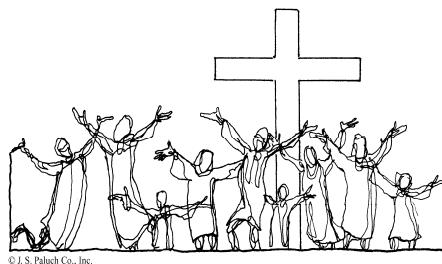

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future.

Food for Thought

All are Welcome

Today's readings make it clear that God's house will welcome all. Requiring only faith sincere, to His table comes the call.

Paul and Matthew both agree that God's love knows no limits, nor hold-backs for His mercy. Faith brings blessed benefits.

O God, may the peoples praise you; May your face shine upon them. On salvation's avenue, light our way with love's bright gem.

Saint Pius X (1835-1914)

August 21

Presidential vetoes we understand. But imagine vetoing a papal election! Yet in the conclave of 1903, the Archbishop of Cracow (ironically, a predecessor in that office of Karol Wojtyla, the future John Paul II) vetoed the leading candidate on the order of the Austro-Hungarian emperor. Instead, the cardinals elected Giuseppe Sarto of Venice as Pius X, the first pope, after a succession of nobles and diplomats, to hail from humble origins. Taking as his motto “To restore all things in Christ” (Ephesians 1:10), Pius condemned the theological innovations called “modernism,” yet dramatically altered the then-common practice whereby people rarely received Communion for fear of unworthiness, mandating early First Communion and urging everyone to frequent reception. Refusing to bless troops assembled in Saint Peter’s Square—“I bless peace, not war!”—he died brokenhearted as World War I engulfed Christian Europe despite his peacemaking efforts.
