Thoughts From Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Slowly he rose, and the crowd fell silent. Those at the back leaned forward, straining to hear. The atmosphere was electric. He spoke, and his carefully chosen words flew like swift arrows and found their mark. The great man, a spokesman for God, was warning-and condemning. The crowd became restless-shifting positions, with his message, nodding their heads and weeping softly. But most were angry, and they began to shout back insults and threats. Such was the life of a prophet. The office of prophet was instituted during the days of Samuel, the last of the Judges. Before Israel had a king, it had a series of tribal leaders called Judges. God used these men and women to save the Israelites from the enemies and lead them back to him. Prophets stood with priests as God's special representatives. The prophet's role was to speak for God, confronting the people and their leaders with God's commands and promises. Because of this confrontational stance and continuing tendency of people to disobey God, true prophets were not very popular. But though their message often went unheeded, they faithfully and forcefully proclaimed the truth.

Our reading today, comes from prophet Isaiah. Isaiah was considered to be the greatest prophet. In the beginning of his ministry, he was well liked. But like most prophets, he soon became unpopular because of his messages were so difficult to hear. He called the people to turn from their lives of sin and warned them of God's judgement and punishment. Isaiah had an active ministry for 60 year. In our reading today, prophet Isaiah warned Shebna that the Lord will remove him from his office, and he will install his servant Eliakim who was the son of Hilkiah to be leader of his people. Shebna was a high court official who was materialistic as the rest of the people in Jerusalem. He may have been in the group favoring an alliance with foreigners thus ignoring Isaiah's advice. The Lord revealed that Shebna would lose his position and be replaced by Eliakim. Similarly, in today's Gospel Jesus knew that the time of his physical presence on earth was limited. He wanted to find whether the Apostles were ready to continue his ministry by asking them who they think he was. Among the twelve apostles, Peter's answer satisfied Jesus as he told him that He was Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God. We learn from today's Gospel in which Jesus asked his apostles who the people or they thought He was. The people thought that he was either Elijah or Jeremiah or John the Baptist but only Peter knew that He was the Son of God.

Who is Christ for you? Do you know him? If you know Christ, you will allow Him to come to your heart and He will transform you to be a better Christian. We need to ask the same question when we are electing our political leaders or representatives that Christ asked His Apostles. Unfortunately, most of our leaders these days are driven by opinion polls not what they hold in their hearts. May you continue to be the light of the world especially during these challenging times that we are in. God bless you.

— Fr. George

Please fill out a registration form after Mass, or come by the Rectory Office during the week.

Trust

Keys hold great significance for those who carry them. They represent the trust and authority of the owner when given to another person. We may give our house key to a trusted friend to take care of our matters while we are away. We may give keys to someone responsible for maintaining or working in a particular building. Keys to vehicles are given to people who have proven themselves responsible drivers. The readings today focus on this kind of trust—the trust that conveys authority and responsibility.

In the first reading, the symbol is specifically that of a key; but the second reading and the Gospel also speak of trust and leadership as they refer to the earthly church that Jesus established.

500 Club Certificates Update

Just a reminder that our current season of the 500 Club continues with weekly drawings through October 18th, 2020. It is great to know that we have your support and that we have owners of all 500 certificates for the first time ever! Selling all 500 certificates along with a few donations allowed us to reach a profit of almost $9600 through this fundraiser. We were also able to have a fourth special drawing for $500 on July 19th. Each certificate continues to be eligible to be the winner on any of the remaining weekends and the prize for each of those weekends is $25. Thank you again for your enthusiastic participation, especially as we are not able to resume other previously scheduled fundraising events at this time.

Applications for the 2020-2021 season of the 500 Club have been mailed. The new season begins October 25th, 2020. Looking forward to your participation. For additional applications, please contact Elaine Podraza at 708-524-1461

Peace, wellness, prayers, & gratitude!

2020 First Communion at St. Catherine of Siena—St. Lucy Church

Prior to March of 2020 the children/young individuals in the Religious Education program worked very hard by coming to class, class participation, doing assignments, etc., and we definitely do not want that to go unnoticed.

First Communion- we are planning to have first Communion on Sunday, August 30, 2020 at 10:30 a.m.

First Reconciliation - has been planned for Saturday, August 29, 2020 at 10:00

Religion Education News

Many of you know that we will not have the children/young individuals in the school or any other site for the religious education program. BUT we are looking at online and virtual classes. If you are still able to help please let us know, we would really appreciate it.

Weekly Offering

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Summer Stewardship

A gentle reminder that our stewardship of our parish does not go on vacation! If you go on vacation or your plans keep you from being present here on the weekends, please try to “make up” your regular offering another weekend.

We understand that every one is not ready to attend Mass directly in the Parish. But many families are inadvertently missing their weekly commitment to support our parish. So we recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts — whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections. Once you sign up, you will be able to manage your giving preferences at any time, and you won't have to worry about writing a check or carrying cash to church each week. You can manage it anywhere you have an internet connection 24/7.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org and under Steward & Giving tab you will be able to find the link to GiveCentral

Praying for the Sick In Our Parish

Coletta Ali, Michael Ballew, Blanca Diaz, Marcial Gomez, Dave Grayson, Theresa Hancock, Phillip Jones, Paul Koko, Kathleen Kroker, Tito Lopez, Marian McCurry, Jeff Nesbitt, Irma Monteverde, Raul Perez, Chuck Scott, Annette Varga, and Bern Wheel.

The name of your close relative will remain on this list for four weeks. After that you will have to call us again to reinstate it into the list. If you wish to include a name of a sick member of your family here, please call Amanda at the rectory during office hours. Thank you.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us

AUGUST 30, 2020 — 22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9

Jeremiah often anguished over the difficulty in being a prophet. Proclaiming God's message made him very unpopular. Today we hear why he still felt compelled to do it.

Second Reading: Romans 12:1-2

Toward the end of Paul's letter to the Romans, he deals with the moral demands made on those who follow Christ. In today's reading, Paul reminds us that living a Christian life — which so often includes sacrifice — is like an act of liturgical worship in which we offer ourselves to God.

Remember a Loved One

We have the 2020 Mass Book available with weekend and weekdays masses. Please call us to request your Masses. Remember your loved ones or any other special occasion. Mass intentions are only $10.00.

Communion & Anointing of the Sick

Please call the Rectory at 708-386-8077 to let us know if you or a member of your family is in need of the sacrament of anointing of the sick or would like to have Holy Communion brought to your house or nursing home or both.

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future.

Faith and Fellowship

Who We Are

We are a motley crew. We come from all over the place – St. Catherine—St. Lucy, Immaculate Conception (Elmhurst), Ascension, St. Bernardine, St. Dominic, St. Fabian, Central Plaza, Columbus Manor, Oasis, Ignatian Volunteer Corps, Catholic Theological Union, and Brazil. We are racially, ethnically, and culturally diverse. We are multi-faith. We are young and not-so-young – 20-something, 70-something, and everything in between. We are a lawyer, a biker, a teacher, a Marine. We are conservative, liberal, independent.

And when some of us recently thought about what gifts each one of brings to the group, a random list emerged: comfort with quiet...empathy...dedication...love...leadership...carry a tune...adaptability...connection with the guys...peace...musical resources...treats...companionship with the women...fully present...listening...friendship...helping hand...drawing people in...

A motley crew, for sure!

Like disparate pieces of a puzzle – we come together to create a picture of oneness – of beauty – of faith – of fellowship!

Parish Events

Until further notice, all events in the church and school are still canceled as a precaution against the spread of the COVID-19.

Our Pastor will observe all health precautions and distancing as we minister to you.

Food for Thought

Practicing Christianity

Matthew tells us of those most important moments: Jesus placed His earthly kingdom into Peter's hands. He told Peter He would build his church upon him, and gave him the keys to His kingdom.

The actions established the priestly ministry, binding people to hope and losing them from failures, spreading the gospel through the forgiveness of sins: Jesus was son of the living God.

Liturgy today reminds us Christianity demands a lot of practice, as we humbly accept that we won't do it perfectly; we will slowly learn humility and audacity.

The great resilience of the gospel is that it exists in every heart that welcomes it. In these nasty times, Jesus is the center that is holding us together.

I will give thanks to your name, because of your kindness and your truth. When I called, you answered me; you built up strength within me.
