Thoughts from Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

What is success for you? Most definitions include references to achieving goals and acquiring wealth, prestige, favor and power. “Successful” people enjoy the good life-being financially and emotionally secure, being surrounded by admirers, and enjoying the fruits of their labors. They are leaders, opinion makers, and trendsetters. Their example is emulated; their accomplishments are noticed. They know who they are and where they are going, and they stride confidently to meet their goals.

By these standards, Prophet Jeremiah was a miserable failure. For 40 years he served as God’s spokesman to Juda or the southern part of Israel. Consistently and passionately he urged them to act, but nobody moved. And he certainly did not attain material success. He was poor and underwent severe deprivation to deliver God’s prophecies. Jeremiah is commonly known as the “Weeping Prophet,” and for good reason. During his faithful ministry, Jeremiah was the lone voice of truth and righteousness among a people who had no desire for righteousness. The book of prophet Jeremiah was written to urge God’s people to turn from their sins and back to God. During the prophecy of prophet Jeremiah, the nation was sliding quickly toward destruction and was eventually conquered. In our reading today, Jeremiah cried out in despair. He had faithfully proclaimed God’s word and received nothing from God in return but persecution and sorrow.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, have you ever felt as if your efforts were in vain, and questioned if you were making a difference in this life. We find ourselves questioning God, and tempted to abandon the work that we are doing. We are not the first to feel this way. God is able to provide the strength we need and he will never abandon us. While we are not prophets, called to warn a rebellious people of judgment to come, I am sure we have all experienced seasons in life when we could relate to Jeremiah’s feelings. As we strive to serve the Lord and live for Him, we face opposition, often from those we least expect. If you have served the Lord for any length of time, you have likely been tempted to abandon the work, questioning if the effort was really worth it. If you are walking in a valley of doubt and despair, I hope the message today will bring the comfort and encouragement you need to continue for the Lord. Jeremiah honestly felt as if he had been deceived by the Lord. He revealed his displeasure with his current situation. He felt as if the Lord had not revealed unto him the great difficulty he would face. He had hoped for better success, and yet he faced one defeat after another. He was saying, “Lord, why have you brought me to this place; this is not what I expected when you spoke to me about preaching unto the people. This is not what I signed up for. I hope you understand that if the Lord is pursuing you, He will prevail. The enemy can plant seeds of doubt, but our Lord is more than able to overcome.

May God bless you.

— Fr. George

Summer Stewardship

A gentle reminder that our stewardship of our parish does not go on vacation! If you go on vacation or your plans keep you from being present here on the weekends, please try to "make up" your regular offering another weekend.

We understand that every one is not ready to attend Mass directly in the Parish. But many families are inadvertently missing their weekly commitment to support our parish. So we recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts – whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections. Once you sign up, you will be able to manage your giving preferences at any time, and you won't have to worry about writing a check or carrying cash to church each week. You can manage it anywhere you have an internet connection 24/7.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org and under Steward & Giving tab you will be able to find the link to GiveCentral

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us

SEPTEMBER 6, 2020 — 23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ezekiel 33:7-9

Ezekiel was an Old Testament prophet who ministered to the Jewish people exiled in Babylon. In this passage, the speaker is God who uses the image of a watchman to describe a prophet's role. In those times, a watchman was someone who stood on a hill or in a tower to watch for invaders.

Second Reading: Romans 13:8-10

In the concluding section of his letter to the Romans, Paul writes about the moral demands of Christian life. This letter was written some years before the Gospels, yet these words will sound very much like words we hear in the Gospels. Clearly, Paul is drawing upon a pre-Gospel tradition about what Jesus said.

Food for Thought

What burns in our hearts?

Communities of voices all over the globe are shouting from the margins against injustices. Despite pandemic dangers, they are in the streets, in solidarity against the many horrors they see in racism and police brutality. The margins have had enough.

In making their presence known, they spoke truth to power; They will not accept being silenced, pushed aside, nor either bullied or discounted any longer. In our readings, Jeremiah said to not speak out makes it become a fire burning in his heart. The margins had had enough.

Paul said be transformed as we work against oppression; He states that a renewal of minds is required. Matthew invites us to become uncomfortable, as Jesus challenges the structure of the day. Acts of injustice today "crucify" people on the margins every day.
