Thoughts From Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Sometimes it is good to know the background of someone as this plays a significant part of their life's journey. Many times, we hear the stories of prominent people who were previously struggling with life. Their stories tend to inspire us particularly when it comes to matters pertaining faith. Sometimes, people's background can be misused and therefore harmful to the good of the society. No matter what kind of background you come from, Christ died for everyone and not just for a single person. We were all be baptized in the name of Christ and each person is equal and is God's gift.

However, the society in which we grow may let us know that we are not equal. This could affect our self-esteem but please don't mind what you are told by the society, from your boss, your neighbor or your husband/wife etc.... because it is not coming from the mouth of Jesus and it's nowhere it is taught in the bible. I look at bible as our GPS. If you get lost, the GPS is always working hard in the background to give you another alternative direction. It is never tired and likewise we should be never being tired while trying to forgive. In one of my Facebook postings that are now deactivated, I suggested that; it is possible to read the bible meticulously, to know the bible inside out from cover to cover, to be able to quote it word by word and pass examination on it -and yet completely miss its real meaning.

As Christians, we should follow the teachings of Christ. How do you respond when you have been mistreated and hurt by someone? All of us would probably have to admit that when we have been mistreated, we find it hard to have a Christ-like mind and to express the forgiving Spirit of Christ toward those who have mistreated us. We are more likely to become angry and try to seek revenge. But responding with anger, hostility, bitterness, and retaliation is the Devil's way of destroying your home, your family, and your fellowship with others. We all have experienced the pain of being mistreated. Every human being experiences mistreatment from others. How we deal with it will go a long way toward determining our wellbeing and happiness in life. Our Lord specifically places on us the obligation to give the gift of forgiveness to those who mistreat us. We often find it difficult to be forgiving, because we have a natural impulse to retaliate. We may find it difficult to be forgiving because we labor under the impression that to be forgiving may encourage continued mistreatment. Some people believe forgiveness is a sign of weakness, so they withhold their forgiveness because they don't want to appear weak in the eyes of others. Or we may find it difficult to be forgiving because we want the one who injured us to be worthy and to deserve the gift of forgiveness. God's forgiveness of each one of us is free, and it's complete, and it's forever. He doesn't hold our sins over our head, but, instead, He offers forgiveness to each of us personally. On the basis of His forgiveness of us, we can be forgiving toward others. If you have been holding a grudge against someone, you can give yourself a clean heart and a clear conscience if you will ask our forgiving God to help you forgive to that person who has injured you the gift of forgiveness.

From our Gospel today, we learn that there is not set limit when it comes to forgiveness. We should always try to forgive it all. God bless you.

— Fr. George

Summer Stewardship

A gentle reminder that our stewardship of our parish does not go on vacation! If you go on vacation or your plans keep you from being present here on the weekends, please try to “make up” your regular offering another weekend.

We understand that every one is not ready to attend Mass directly in the Parish. But many families are inadvertently missing their weekly commitment to support our parish. So we recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts — whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections. Once you sign up, you will be able to manage your giving preferences at any time, and you won't have to worry about writing a check or carrying cash to church each week. You can manage it anywhere you have an internet connection 24/7.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org and under Steward & Giving tab you will be able to find the link to GiveCentral

SEPTEMBER 13, 2020 — 24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 27:33-28:9

The book of Sirach was written by a wise teacher who lived 200 years before Christ. Sirach ran a school for young people in Jerusalem. In today's section, he teaches his students the importance of forgiveness.

Second Reading: Romans 14:7-9

After dealing with the controversies which divided the early Christian community in Rome, Paul wrote about the need for tolerance and for sensitivity to the feelings of others. In today's passage, he points out that this affects our use of the gift of freedom.

Food for Thought

Fighting Global Evils

*Prophets are portrayed as people in hope grounded;
They see evil as a toxic degradation
of what it can and should be.*

*A prophet’s mission from the Lord is founded on people’s beauty in interpretation,
and beauty within themselves.*

*September First the Season of Creation starts,
as we confront challenges interrelated,
that are enough to test the Prophet.*

*Institutionalized racism tears at our hearts;
The environmental crisis grows unabated;
We fear Covid-19’s pandemic.*

*These three global evils offer us a chance to change
the course of history; start with one—with all our aim;
Let us assume responsibility.*

*We speak in God’s name, on behalf of creation’s range.
Where two or three are gathered in His name,
He is in the midst of them.*
