Thoughts From Father Valentine Anawekhai

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

My name is Fr. Valentine Anawekhai, a priest of the Diocese of Auchi, Edo State, Nigeria. I was ordained on the 24 September, 2005. I am on a one year sabbatical leave here in the United States and a student at the Catholic Theological Union, Chicago. I participated in the Hesburgh Sabbatical program in Spring, January – April. By March, the corona virus pandemic interrupted the program and my entire plans for the sabbatical leave, especially plans to travel and visit family members and friends, before my return back to Nigeria. I have been in Chicago all this while and it has been an interesting experience so far, both pleasant and otherwise, staying far away from family members, friends and acquaintances. This pandemic, no doubt has affected everyone in one way or the other. It has changed the normal course of events and activities, including ways of worship, studies, relationships and everything. Even though it has posed some serious challenges, it has also been a blessing in disguise, particularly to me. It has afforded me ample opportunity to do a lot of writing, studies/reading and trying to keep in touch with friends and relatives. It has made me to be further convinced that things happen for a good purpose. It all depends on our perception and attitude towards them. I feel God is using this avenue to call us to a better and deeper relationship with Him and with our loved ones, especially those we have been too busy to pay attention to and spend some time with. It has also afforded me an occasion for sober reflection about this life and the after life. I realize that each one of us has been really affected and impacted by this pandemic. I empathize with you and will continue to have you in my prayers.

Let us keep up the faith and the good fight to the end. To those who have lost their dear ones, may you find consolation in Christ. For the dead, may they Rest In Peace. To those infected, may Christ heal them and may they recover soon. For all those stuck and separated from their loved ones, may they soon be happily reunited with their families, friends and loved ones. Through the unfailing intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Perpetual Help, may this pandemic soon become a thing of the past. And may God hear and grant all our prayers and petitions. Amen

I'm glad to have accepted the invitation of your pastor, Fr George, who has asked me to relieve him for last week. I feel honored and appreciate your kindness, warm reception and hospitality since I came and left St Catherine— St Lucy Parish. God bless you all. Thank you!

— Fr. Valentine

Forgiveness

Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father. They did not speak to each other again.

Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon. The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: "Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?"

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As St. Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord.

Jesus' parable in today's Gospel reminds us of God's compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way.

Faith and Fellowship

Zoom's Ahead

Faith and Fellowship, ever adaptable, has moved into "high tech"! The Catechists in the Wednesday Night Group arranged a Zoom with our Partners at Columbus Manor, in collaboration with the facility's Staff. Three Partners and three Catechists joined in, and using photos of open highways, everyone reflected on the theme of "life's journey," sharing stories about a cross-country road trip, surgeries and health problems, life in a series of nursing homes, and family visits. The Scripture from Proverbs was proclaimed – "Trust in the Lord with all your heart...he will make straight your paths" – followed by a blessing and prayers of petition and thanksgiving. This has not always gone smoothly: Internet snafus, difficulty hearing, people wandering in and out, scheduling around the hectic life at Columbus Manor. But when we ended with snacks (provided and delivered by parishioners and catechists), conversation, the Our Father, and our traditional "Amen," and "Shalom" the message was clear: even amid a pandemic, Jesus is with us in our journey.

Religion Education News

Many of you know that we will not have the children/young individuals in the school or any other site for the religious education program. BUT we are looking at online and virtual classes. If you are still able to help please let us know, we would really appreciate it.

Weekly Offering

Summer Stewardship

A gentle reminder that our stewardship of our parish does not go on vacation! If you go on vacation or your plans keep you from being present here on the weekends, please try to "make up" your regular offering another weekend.

We understand that every one is not ready to attend Mass directly in the Parish. But many families are inadvertently missing their weekly commitment to support our parish. So we recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts — whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections. Once you sign up, you will be able to manage your giving preferences at any time, and you won't have to worry about writing a check or carrying cash to church each week. You can manage it anywhere you have an internet connection 24/7.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org and under Steward & Giving tab you will be able to find the link to GiveCentral

Praying for the Sick In Our Parish

The name of your close relative will remain on this list for four weeks. After that you will have to call us again to reinstate it into the list. If you wish to include a name of a sick member of your family here, please call Amanda at the rectory during office hours. Thank you.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us

SEPTEMBER 20, 2020 — 25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 55:6-9

The prophetic words in today's reading were spoken during the Israelites' exile in Babylon. Earlier, the prophet had proclaimed that God was looking mercifully upon them and would soon free them. In today's reading, the prophet points out that they now have a window of opportunity and should take advantage of God's willingness to forgive.

Second Reading: Philippians 1:20-24,27

For the next four weeks, our second reading will be taken from Paul's letter to the Philippians. When Paul wrote this letter, he was in prison for preaching the Gospel, and he faced the possibility of execution. A person in those circumstances tends to think long thoughts about death, and death is what Paul is wrestling with in today's passage.

Remember a Loved One

We have the 2020 Mass Book available with weekend and weekdays masses. Please call us to request your Masses. Remember your loved ones or any other special occasion. Mass intentions are only $10.00.

Communion & Anointing of the Sick

Please call the Rectory at 708-386-8077 to let us know if you or a member of your family is in need of the sacrament of anointing of the sick or would like to have Holy Communion brought to your house or nursing home or both.

2021 Mass Book Open

If you have a loved one who is ill or has passed away ... or any special occasion or petition you'd like to bring before the Lord ... consider offering your prayers at a Mass.

Our book is open for personal intentions for the remainder of this year and for the 2021 year.

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future.

St. John Chrysostom (c. 344-407) - September 13

“Speaking truth to power” may have become just another cliché, but doing precisely that cost John “the Golden Mouth” (Chrysostom) his diocese and, after exile and a forced march, his health and life. “Renowned for eloquence, heroic in suffering” (Sacramentary), John’s scriptural insights still comfort and challenge. Mystical theologian, he bids Eastern Christians, whose principal Divine Liturgy bears his name, to lift up their hearts to “God ineffable, beyond comprehension, invisible, beyond understanding, existing forever, always the same.” Model pastor, he warns Roman Catholics in the Liturgy of the Hours not to neglect God-in-the-flesh: “Would you honor Christ’s body? Do not scorn his nakedness, honoring him here in church with silken robes, while neglecting him cold and naked outside. What use to burden Christ’s altar with golden chalices, while Christ himself starves to death? What use dressing the altar with gold-woven cloths, while denying the shivering Christ the clothes he needs? Do not adorn the church while ignoring your needy brother: he is the most precious temple of all!”
