Thoughts From Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

One of Jesus' most significant parables regarding work is set in the context of investments (Matt. 25:14-30). In this Gospel, a rich man delegates the management of his wealth to his servants, much as investors in today's markets do. He gives five talents (a large unit of money) to the first servant, two talents to the second, and one talent to the third. Two of the servants earn 100 percent returns by trading with the funds, but the third servant hides the money in the ground and earns nothing. The rich man returns, rewards the two who made money, but severely punishes the servant who did nothing. We do not know a lot of information about this man however we do know that he trusted his staff since he gave them all his possession and left to unknown land. I think, not many of us by human standards, today will entrust our wealth to people and then go away. Our Gospel today, tells us that that this man gave his staff different talents according to one's ability.

In the New Testament, the term "talent" meant something very different than it does today. The talents Jesus spoke of in the Parable of the Unforgiving Servant (Mathew 18:21-35) and the Parable of the Talents (Mathew 25:14-30) referred to the largest unit of currency at the time. Thus, a talent represented a rather large sum of money. According to New Nave's Topical Bible, one who possessed five talents of gold or silver was a multimillionaire by today's standards. Some calculate the talent in the parables to be equivalent to 20 years of wages for the common worker. Other scholars estimate more conservatively, valuing the New Testament talent somewhere between $1,000 to $30,000 dollars today. We are told that the owner of the talents came back after a long time and was pleased with the two men who invested the talents he gave them. The two men were rewarded accordingly by him. The one who did not invest the talent received nothing. Who is this man who gave the talents? This Man is Jesus Christ, he died and went back to heaven and someday he will come back again.

Today, I challenge you to discover your gift/s and share to others and do not be like the man who never invested his talent. God does not endow people with identical or necessarily equal gifts. If you do as well as you can with the gifts given to you by God, you will hear his voice "Well done." It is not only the gifts, but also the people have equal worth. At the same time, the parable ends with the talent taken from the third servant being given to the one with ten talents. Equal worth does not necessarily mean equal compensation. Some positions require more skill or ability and thus are compensated accordingly. The two servants who did well are rewarded in different amounts. But they are both praised identically. The implication of the parable is that we are to use whatever talents we've been given to the best of our ability for God's glory, and when we have done that, we are on an equal playing field with other faithful, trustworthy servants of God. Finally, I am going to be conducting Advent bible Zoom studies on Tuesday's at 7:00 pm beginning with the first week of Advent. Please watch the bulletin space for the forthcoming link. God bless you.

— Fr. George

Faith & Fellowship News

YouTube "Pizza Mass"

Every year, Faith & Fellowship co-sponsors with the Archdiocesan Commission on Mental Illness a Mass for Mental Illness Awareness – affectionately known as the "Pizza Mass" because the inclusive liturgy is followed by a pizza party. This year it was virtual, with opening remarks by Cardinal Cupich. It's available on YouTube - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7jUY0zhLl4&feature=youtu.be>

Catechist Shirley Rissman shares her reflections:

- The pizza mass was beautiful.
- Fr Grassi's homily tied the gospel theme of love one another to the warmth he felt every time he did the pizza mass from our participants.
- So glad this was virtual because I can watch the replay as many times as I want.
- Hope our partners and folks who might benefit from seeing this mass can have access to the replay link.

Volunteers Needed to Register Mass Attendees for Saturday / Sunday / Holy Day Masses

If you are looking for a way to help out during this challenging time, we are looking for parishioners who can register people who have signed up for one of the three weekend Masses (Saturday 5PM, Sunday 8:30 and Sunday 10:30). It would require arriving at church 15 minutes before the service and check those registered on-line or those who attend without prior registration. The registrant is asked to greet people, spray hands with the sanitizer and hand out the bulletin and liturgy sheet. To be clear, it would not be every week, but each week an email would be sent to those on the list asking someone to sign up for each Mass.

If you would be interested in being added to the list, please email Miles Jackson at miles.jacks6@gmail.com or Jeanette Cannon, at patnette@comcast.net

We are also looking for someone who is slightly tech-savvy to take on the role of creating the weekly signups on (signupgenious.com) and copying the results to a word file which is printed on Saturday and taken to the parish office.

Thank you!

First Reading: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

Ezekiel preached to Jewish exiles at Babylon in the sixth century before Christ. They were a disappointed people and they blamed poor leadership for getting them into this mess. In this passage, Ezekiel uses a popular biblical image of God, that of a shepherd who cares for the sheep.

Second Reading: Corinthians 15: 20-26,28

In his first letter to the Corinthians, Paul addresses problems his converts in the community were experiencing. Some members had questioned the bodily resurrection of Jesus and their own resurrection as well. This passage is Paul's response.

Food for Thought A Wreath of Roses

Illuminating the special path for us to achieve our salvation, Three beams of light: love of God, self and neighbor, our Christian foundation. These are clearly what the first two commandments intend, and on which the whole law and the prophets do depend. They are also from the mysteries of the rosary.

"Rosary" came from the Latin "rosarium," wreath of roses, which was used to denote the prayers and sayings that it poses. Hail Marys, counted by aid of Pater Nosters, were common in the twelfth century. Gradually, her last part was added, "Holy Mary," that forms today's prayer.

*Now Mary's crowning as Queen of Heaven is celebrated in the fifth Glorious Mystery of the rosary, stated movingly in Luke for all the nations:
"...For behold, henceforth all generations shall call me Blessed, because He who is mighty has done great things for me..."*
