Thoughts From Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today we come to the end of our Liturgical year with the celebration of the Solemnity of Christ, the King. Our first reading is drawn from prophet Ezekiel 34. This chapter is not about the sheep, but it is about people who acted like sheep. The people needed a good shepherd to lead them. The shepherds that Ezekiel wrote were not really shepherds but were the kings of Israel who had the responsibility of leading their citizens. Prophet Ezekiel used an allegorical language of comparing people with sheep and leaders with shepherds. One wonders why Ezekiel sounds like a nice way to talk about the relationship between kings and their subjects. Shepherds are supposed to look out for the sheep and kings are supposed to look out for their subjects, but prophet Ezekiel says that is not what the kings in Israel were doing. Instead of caring for the weak, the sick, the injured, the strayed, and the lost, these shepherds, or kings in this case, were mostly looking after themselves, feeding themselves, fleecing their subjects, and lining their own nests. Ezekiel said, "You drink the milk, you clothe yourselves with the wool, etc., but you do not feed the sheep." And so, instead of helping their citizens, these national leaders were getting richer and more powerful at the expense of their citizens. The Kings were doing things to their own advantage. Does that sound like something you've heard before? Does this surprise you lately? As a result, Ezekiel says, the sheep are now scattered over the face of the earth, with no one to search or seek for them.

The situation, as we know from the Old Testament, was that the people of Israel were deported from their country because their kings were not godly leaders. If you look at the record, you find that out of 43 kings, only three were consistently loyal to God: David, Hezekiah, and Josiah. around 8 or 9 did some good, but all the rest were extremely bad kings. For many years, the people were without anyone to lead them. They were like scattered sheep on the hillside, exposed to storms, wild animals, and famine. In fact, they had been carried off to another country. They had been exiled to Babylon. So, what would happen to these Kings and the people? God's judgment would come. Ezekiel announced that their holy city Jerusalem would be completely destroyed. And he urged the people to repent of their wrongdoing in the hope that God would not carry out his punishment. Christ, our King said that the good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. What does that mean? A shepherd was responsible for the life of his sheep and sometimes he had to risk his own life for the sake of his flock. It wasn't only wild animals that threatened the sheep.

I think the best way to end our Liturgical Year is by the celebration that honors the Son of God who died on the Cross and took away the punishment that was rightly ours. Christ is not like any of the earthly kings that puts heavy burdens on those they govern, but a King who came to live with sinner and died for them. What a privilege to have such King!

Finally, there will be a Second Collection to support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. I know that this is a very challenging time that we are but please spare some change and help our Church to continue the mission of helping the needy amongst us.

There will be Bible Studies via Zoom beginning with the first week of Advent on Wednesday at 7:00 pm. As advent approaches, you will receive by email the zoom link that we will be using through the four weeks of Advent. God bless you.

— Fr. George

NOVEMBER 29 2020 — FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

First Reading: Isaiah 63:16-17, 19; 64: 1, 2-7

The Israelites had just returned from exile and were suffering economic hardship and persecution. The prophet expresses their expectation that God will intervene in human history in a dramatic way to help them. At the end of this reading, we will hear a familiar image.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1: 3-9

In the letter-writing style popular in Paul's day, writers would begin by extending greetings and then thank the gods for the blessings they themselves received. But Paul begins his first letter to the Corinthians by thanking God for the blessings his converts in Corinth have received. (It may help to know that the phrase "day of the Lord" refers to Jesus coming again in glory.)

Communion & Anointing of the Sick

Please call the Rectory at 708-386-8077 to let us know if you or a member of your family is in need of the sacrament of anointing of the sick or would like to have Holy Communion brought to your house or nursing home or both.

Faith & Fellowship News

YouTube “Pizza Mass” – Part 2

This week, Catechist Marcial Gomez comments the October’s virtual Annual Mass and Pizza Party: I was grateful that the message of the Mass would be seen by countless others on social media (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7jUIY0zhL14&t=273s>). My discussion group afterward gave me a such a feeling of fellowship and a different perspective that deepened my understanding on how important our ministry is to others and to ourselves. Fr. Grassi's homily, as well as Cardinal Cupich's introduction, were outpourings of blessings in that they reminded me that I am continually invited to meet Jesus in the heart of every sister and brother.

Thanksgiving

One act of thanksgiving, when things go wrong with us, is worth a thousand thanks when things are agreeable to our inclinations.

—Saint John of Ávila

Food for Thought

The Least of My Brothers

In Ezekiel's parable of the sheep and the goats, we do not recognize Christ in others, especially those in need. Folks made a serious flub: What to use to settle their fate so dim.

We are told what Jesus seeks, as our catechism notes:

We know, love and serve God as His brothers.

How do we know, despite the Beatitudes? Here's the rub:

Who is God? How do we love and serve Him?

Today's parable tells us, as Jesus identifies with the lowliest, no “ad hominem.”

While humanity views the divine as magnificent, Jesus knew that working with the needy enlarges the hearts of givers, brings us more human ties.

The poor are in Christ, and He is in them.

“You, blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom heaven-sent, What you did for my brothers, you did for me,”
