From Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I have been saved by the blood of Jesus, another one yells, "Jesus is my personal savior" and the people respond "Amen." You must be one of those lucky folks if you haven't come across someone and ask you this question: Are you saved? Catholics hate to be asked any question that pertains their faith, sacraments, or the bible in a public place. Let us get to the basics. Are you saved? Do you regularly pray before you go to bed? In the morning? When did you recite your rosary? Do you have own a rosary? Do you have a bible in your house? Do you read the bible regularly or do you read the lives of saints? Have you ever been to confession lately? Do you go to church regularly? My goal in this article is draw to your attention to the simple things that we are supposed to do as Catholics to improve our relationship with God who loves us unconditionally. Lent could be a good time to commit and do one of these simple devotions above.

What do you do when a stranger asks you in the plane or in the train or on a cruise ship whether you are saved or not? Do you keep quiet or ignore the person as some of us do occasionally. If you say yes, the stranger may ask you more questions and you may not be able to answer them for fear of getting embarrassed. Are you one of those who think that they do not know much about the bible and get scared when you see someone carrying the bible? Catholics know more about the bible but what they do not know well is memorizing scripture passages and applying them in situations. Even if you do not read the bible individually, by regularly attending Mass and listening to sermons you will get to know the bible somehow. To me, it is not important that you are not able to memorize many Scripture Passages, but the most important thing is to believe that the bible is an inspired word of God meant to transform the followers of Christ. It doesn't matter how many Passages you are able to memorize but if you cannot apply them in the daily life by loving God and your neighbor, then your faith is questionable.

In case one asks you whether you are saved or not, tell them that yes, you are saved but you are still working on your salvation daily because when Jesus died on the cross he saved us, when you were baptized you were saved and salvation is ongoing. Salvation is not static; it is something we keep working on until the day when we can be in heaven, then we can say with certainty that we are saved. Finally, God's love clearly isn't based on our spiritual condition or our moral predisposition. It isn't based on our behavior or our attitude toward him but God's love for mankind is universal and unconditional. He loves everyone. And this is one of the things that set him apart from every other god held up by every other world religion. What set's Christianity apart from other religions is the concept of incarnation, the idea that God took human form in Jesus and freely came to live amongst sinners.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, there is nothing we can do to make God love us more. There is nothing we can do to make God love us less. God's love is not merely some abstract concept. It isn't just a philosophy or a theological construct. God's love was made manifest in this world through the person of Jesus Christ the only Son of the Father. Jesus Christ came into this world to reveal to us the love of God in human form. God bless you and let us pray for one another were move closer to the Holy Week.

— Fr. George

God's Mercy

Today's reading from the second book of Chronicles contains a sort of "mini-history" of Israel. It highlights God's mercies in choosing Cyrus the Persian to be an instrument of deliverance when the people were in captivity in Babylon. Despite their sinfulness and the deserved punishment they were undergoing, God's mercy was lavished on the people in the form of a miraculous act of liberation.

The Letter to the Ephesians, in much more theological terms, gives a similar account of a God "who brought us to life with Christ—by grace you have been saved." The author stresses that it was when we were "dead in our transgressions" that God saved us, an act of pure grace. He emphasizes that it is not our own efforts that freed us from sin ("this is not from you"); rather, "it is the gift of God." This, of course, is the heart of the entire Pauline corpus, that salvation comes to us by faith in God's mercy, revealed in the death of Jesus.

God Upholds me

I take for my sureties:
The power of God to guide me,
the might of God to uphold me,
the wisdom of God to teach me,
the eye of God to watch over me,
the ear of God to hear me, the word of God to give me speech,
the hand of God to protect me,
the way of God to go before me,
the shield of God to shelter me.

FAITH & FELLOWSHIP We Are a Church Home

Recently, 16 people met via Zoom to learn about and celebrate Faith & Fellowship's mission of community and inclusion with adults with mental illness. Catechists from each group described the program and shared its importance for themselves as well as for the Partners (members with mental illness). Parishioners and visitors from neighboring parishes rediscovered – or discovered for the first time – the beauty of this ministry. All agreed that it is essential the F/F continue to provide a "church home" for our Partners, and that we would have a follow up meeting to form an action plan.

We invite you to be part of this venture. Contact Connie Rakitan, faith\_fellowship@hotmail.com or 708/383-9276.

MARCH 21, 2021 — 5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34

The prophet Jeremiah ministered at a difficult time in Jewish history. Jerusalem, their beloved capitol, had been destroyed, and most of the people taken captive to far-off Babylon. In this gloomy setting, Jeremiah expresses the conviction that the Lord will raise up a new leader from the line of David to restore and rebuild their homeland.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:7-9

The letter to the Hebrews was written to a Christian community that had become dispirited and whose faith was faltering. Jesus is presented in today's passage as a model of suffering and a source of strength in time of need. (This passage is also part of the second reading on Good Friday.)

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future.

Signs of Lent Laetare Sunday

This weekend is Laetare Sunday, a celebratory day in the more austere season of Lent. Laetare Sunday is always the fourth Sunday of Lent. It comes from the Latin introit for the day, "Laetare Jerusalem" which means Rejoice, O Jerusalem. On this day, the Priest may wear rose instead of purple and flowers may be placed on the altar. Let us rejoice in the coming of our salvation!

CRS Rice Bowl

A Story of Hope from Timor-Leste

Timor-Leste is a small Asian country, slightly larger than the state of Connecticut. It's on the other side of the world near Australia, and it's one of the world's newest countries—only 18 years old. In comparison, the United States will be 245 years old this year! More than one-third of people in Timor-Leste don't have reliable access to enough nutritious food. This especially affects children and their ability to develop to their full potential. With training from CRS, families are starting home gardens to grow different vegetables, beans and other foods that are rich in nutrients like vitamin A and iron. Parents attend nutrition groups in their communities where they learn how to build and improve their gardens.

Eliza and her husband Paulino have six children. After participating in her community's nutrition group, she and Paulino started a home garden and began growing different crops based on the rainy and dry seasons.

Food for Thought

Come to the Light

*For God so loved the world,
He gave His only Son,
so all those who believe,
might have eternal life.
Through love banners unfurled,
our victory would be won.
From God's Son we receive a freedom from all strife.

In God's glorious judgment,
the Light was sent to earth.
Those whose works were evil,
preferred darkness to light.
It's timely now in Lent,
that truth show us it's worth.
Smoothly, no upheaval, works done through God's true might.*

St. Patrick, (flourished 5th century, Britain & Ireland; feast day March 17), patron saint and national apostle of Ireland, credited with bringing Christianity to Ireland and probably responsible in part for the Christianization of the Picts and Anglo-Saxons. He is known from two short works, the Confessio, a spiritual autobiography, and his Letter to Coroticus, a denunciation of British mistreatment of Irish Christians.

St. Joseph - (feast day March 19), We know Joseph respected God. He followed God's commands in handling the situation with Mary and going to Jerusalem to have Jesus circumcised and Mary purified after Jesus' birth. We are told that he took his family to Jerusalem every year for Passover, something that could not have been easy for a working man.

Since Joseph does not appear in Jesus' public life, at his death, or resurrection, many historians believe Joseph probably had died before Jesus entered public ministry. According to the Catholic Encyclopedia, the Apocryphal Date for Joseph's birth is 90 BC in Bethlehem and the Apocryphal Date of his death is July 20, AD 18 in Nazareth.

Joseph is the patron saint of the dying because, assuming he died before Jesus' public life, he died with Jesus and Mary close to him, the way we all would like to leave this earth. Joseph is also patron saint of the Universal Church, families, fathers, expectant mothers (pregnant women), travelers, immigrants, house sellers and buyers, craftsmen, engineers, and working people in general.

Feast of Faith Lent, a Season of the Word

Each year on the First Sunday of Lent we hear one of the Gospel accounts of the temptation of Jesus. In Luke's account, the devil cites the scriptures repeatedly, urging Jesus to interpret them in a false, self-serving way—if God sends angels to protect those whom God loves (as it says in Psalm 91), then prove it! But Jesus resists this insidious temptation by turning to scripture passages that tell of right relationship with God—living by God's word, trusting in God, and worshiping God alone.

Jesus himself listened to the inspired word of God and let it shape and form him. Through the liturgy, we do the same. The readings we hear at Mass can teach us, but that is not their primary function. Rather, the scriptures are meant to reveal the Lord to us, to let us experience his presence, and to form us in our Christian identity. Christ's presence is realized by his spoken word, “since it is he himself who speaks when the Holy Scriptures are read in the Church” (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 7). In the readings proclaimed at Mass, we hear the voice of Christ himself.
