From Rev. John W. McGivern, Administrator

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Sheep left unattended or corralled will wander off and get into trouble every single time. That is why the shepherd goes to such lengths to keep an eye on them. When left to our own devices, we, too, have this uncanny tendency to wander off and get into trouble of all kinds. When we allow the voices of temptation to drown out the voice of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, we are headed for trouble. Jesus knows us better than we know ourselves, and we need to heed his voice.

In today's first reading, we learn that Peter healed a man who was disabled. This, of course, is in itself a powerful moment, but what makes it all the more powerful is the fact that the healing took place "in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean...", demonstrating to all that through the resurrection of Jesus, divine power and healing was no longer limited to the person of Jesus, but active among his believers.

Moreover, this same Peter who denied Jesus three times on Good Friday, is now the one who speaks courageously and directly to the crowd as to their culpability in the death of Jesus: The quote from above continues: "...whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead." Standing in persona Christi, in word and deed, Peter reveals the Good Shepherd to us.

Through the power of the resurrection and the sending of the Holy Spirit, the Lord was working through Peter. The crowds in the first reading heard their shepherd's voice in the words and actions of Peter. The Pharisees and others in the Gospel did not recognize their shepherd who was right in front of them.

Let us, you and I, hear the Good Shepherd's voice this day. Let us help others hear his voice through our words and actions this day as well. For his voice leads us to life. The Easter season is the perfect time to move from pain and suffering to glorious triumph in the risen Christ. May we always hear and heed the voice of the Shepherd.

— Fr. John McGivern

Responding to the Call

Do we truly know the voice of Christ? Do we truly respond to the voice of our shepherd with our own distinctive voice? How often we attempt to imitate those around us, appropriating the response of another member of the flock to Christ. Perhaps we need to balance the image of being sheep of one flock with the image from the second reading, which tells us that we are all children of God. What child has precisely the same interaction with parents as his or her siblings? Instead, they frequently do and say things to distinguish themselves in the eyes of their parents.

Whether we use the image of children or of sheep to understand our relationship with Christ, we believe that we are all known and called by name. With this great gift comes a responsibility: to respond to the call with our own distinctive voice, to take time to discern exactly what our call is, to determine precisely what the will of the Father is for each of us

Saint Catherine of Siena April 29 (1347-1380)

Youngest of twenty-five children, Catherine refused marriage and became a Dominican Tertiary at sixteen, cloistering herself at home in contemplative prayer, austere penances, and mystical experiences, culminating in “spiritual espousal” to Christ. Then, incarnating the Dominican ideal of “passing on to others the fruits of contemplation,” Catherine left her solitude to care for the poor, nurse the sick, comfort the dying, and bury the dead. Increasingly renowned for converting souls and healing bodies, she was sought after to broker peace during civil wars and Church schisms. All this, and like Jesus, whom she called “my Divine Spouse,” she died at thirty-three! Four hundred letters and her spiritual classic The Dialogue inspired Paul VI to name her, together with Teresa of Ávila, the first women Doctors of the Church.

500 Club Certificates

Our weekly drawings for the 2020-2021 season of the 500 Club through October 17th. Certificates are $25 each and will be included in each weekly drawing. The prize each week is $25 except for the three weekends when the prize is $500. We have now sold 422 of our 500 certificates! If we sell all 500 certificates as we did last season, there will be a 4th drawing for $500. Certificates may be for you, but they also make great gifts. We have had one $500 winner and a number of $25 winners whose certificates came to them as a gift. How nice was that!!! If you need a purchase form, they are available in the back of church and at the rectory office. You can also call Elaine Podraza for a form at 708-524-1461 or you can use Give Central on the parish website, www.stcatherinestlucy.org. The 500 Club is a fun way to support the parish and it is open to everyone over 18, not just members of our parish community. Please pass the word. Thank you!!!

1st & 2nd Readings for the upcoming Sunday are offered to help all of us.

MAY 2, 2021 —
5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 9:26-31

Earlier in the book of Acts, we hear about Saul (later known as Paul) persecuting Christians in Jerusalem. When he went to Damascus to do more of the same, he experienced a dramatic conversion. It was several years later before he returned to Jerusalem, the site of his earlier persecutions. His first visit to Jerusalem as a Christian is described in today's reading.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:18-24

During this Easter Season, our second Scripture reading is from the first letter of John. In today's passage, the author is dealing with some members of the community who have defected. They seem to have believed that, as long as you have faith in Jesus, it does not matter what you do in daily life. The author directly refutes that position.

Faith & Fellowship

One of our Partners has moved out of Columbus Manor and into his own apartment in Rogers Park, with the support of a social service agency. But his heart is always with us...and so is this letter:

*Dear Friends,
God bless you – your families and friends!!! I am writing you to say thank-you -and I've been looking forward to seeing you again, having another meeting & pizza on me. Please keep in touch & stay healthy. Please write back or call-me when possible!*

The Foundations and Future of Ministry

All Oak Park parishes are invited to join Father Bob Hutmacher, OFM and Vicky Tufano online or in-person at Ascension parish for three evening sessions on Thursdays, April 29, and May 6 at 7:30 pm on serving God’s people through ministry in the Church.

The sessions will cover our understanding of the Church where we minister, scriptural foundations for our conceptions of ministry today, ways to view ministry in our post-Covid future, and new ways of being the Church, as we begin a process of transformation through Renew My Church. How can we best revitalize ministry today for the Church of tomorrow?

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. To register, please send an email to laffc@ascensionoakpark.com and put “Ministry Series” in the subject line. In the body of the email, put whether you would prefer to attend online or in-person, or if you have no preference. If you don’t indicate a preference, we assume you will attend online. Those attending online will receive an email before the first session with a link to the online livestream. In-person sessions will be held at Ascension Catholic Church, 808 South East Avenue, Oak Park at 7:30 pm.

For more information, go to <https://www.ascensionoakpark.com/apps/pages/athome>.

The first session will review scriptural foundations for service to God’s people and will provide a broad understanding of ministry in the Church. The next two sessions will address the future of ministry and offer new, revitalized ways to view service in ministry.

Father Bob Hutmacher, OFM, a Franciscan Friar at St. Peter’s in the Loop, has been part of the Ascension community since 2012. Vicky Tufano previously served as Pastoral Associate and Director of Liturgy at Ascension.
