From Rev. John W. McGivern, Administrator

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend, we celebrate the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. In times past, it was more commonly known as the Feast of Corpus Christi. It has its inception in the late Middle Ages as a reaction against a developing eucharistic piety which overemphasized the physical presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Such an understanding had compromised the more appropriate appreciation of the real presence of Christ in the eucharistic elements of bread and wine.

This distinction is important. To understand the presence of the physical body of Jesus in the eucharistic elements led many faithful people to be concerned with hurting our Lord as they consumed the consecrated bread and wine. While this may appear to be an almost amusing concern today, such a physicalist interpretation of Christ's presence in the Eucharist was quite real. More subtly, such an interpretation mars and obscures the beauty of the sacramental nature upon which our Catholic faith rests. Allow me to explain.

The Church considers human life to be the greatest sacrament of God. We are the greatest sacrament in that we have the greatest potential to effect, experience, share and thus, become this real presence of Christ in the world. In fact, that is our Christian mission: we are to be Christ for others and to see Christ in others. We come together at the eucharistic table and worship our God, and in this important ritual, we share a meal which unites us all in the one Body (and Blood) of Christ—in the fullness of Christ truly and really present in the meal. Our communion with Christ at the altar is the source from which we are nourished and sent forth to continue doing and becoming what we had just ritually done and become in communion with one another and with the Lord.

The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ holds up the great significance of our Eucharist, but it can only be significant in so far as you and I are committed to becoming and being that self-same presence wherever we go and with whomever we meet.

How do we become that self-same presence of Christ? Well, our weekly meal of receiving Jesus in Holy Communion is certainly a necessary nourishing component. There are as many ways to be, see, share, accept and experience the Lord's presence as there are people who attend mass. Let's not overthink it. We must be available to others. We must share the gifts of kindness, compassion, understanding, forgiveness, hope and love with others. Perhaps more of a challenge for many of us is the fact that we must be humble and open to accepting the gifts of kindness, compassion, understanding, forgiveness, hope and love from others. Of course, this list is not exhaustive. To put it really simply: we have to show up, we have to love and we have to allow ourselves to be loved. And we have to let go of the worry that we cannot or will not do it perfectly. Perfection is God's realm. You and I? Let's just do our best.

— Fr. John McGivern

FEAST OF FAITH

The Corpus Christi Procession

In the thirteenth century, a Belgian nun by the name of Juliana had a vision: she saw the full moon silvery and radiant except for one dark spot. The meaning of the vision was revealed to her: the moon was the Church's liturgical year, the dark spot a missing feast in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. Today's feast of Corpus Christi—the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—grew from Juliana's vision.

On this feast, many parishes observe the traditional Corpus Christi procession, giving honor to the Eucharist by carrying this greatest treasure out of the safety of our churches and into our streets. At the end of every Mass we are not just let out, we are sent forth, strengthened by the Eucharist, to be the Body of Christ in the world. The Corpus Christi procession is the dismissal writ large! We take Jesus with us, not only in our hearts, but carried in our midst and exposed in a monstrance. It is a public profession of faith and a blessing of the world. Jesus walks with us on these streets that we walk day after day, among those who know him but yearn to know him better, and among those who do not know him. The Eucharist is a mystery to be believed, to be celebrated—and to be lived.

We recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts -- whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections. Once you sign up, you will be able to manage your giving preferences at any time, and you won't have to worry about writing a check or carrying cash to church each week. You can manage it anywhere you have an internet connection 24/7.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org and under Steward & Giving tab you will be able to find the link to GiveCentral

Today's Readings

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you (Exodus 24:3-8).

Psalm — I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord (Psalm 116).

Second Reading — Christ is the mediator of a new covenant (Hebrews 9:11-15).

Gospel — This is my body. This is my blood (Mark 14:12-16, 22-26).

Saints and Special Observances

- Sunday: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
- Monday: Tenth Week in Ordinary Time
- Wednesday: St. Ephrem
- Friday: The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus
- Saturday: Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary

1st & 2nd Readings for the upcoming Sunday are offered to help all of us.

JUNE 13, 2021 — Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Ezekiel: 17:22-24
Ezekiel was a major Old Testament prophet who ministered to the Jewish people exiled in Babylon. He often used parables and dramatizations to convey his message. In this passage, Ezekiel uses the image of trees to talk about the restoration of Israel and the fall of the Babylonian empire.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

We continue today to read from Paul's letter to the Corinthians. In this section of the letter, Paul describes our life on earth as a pilgrimage home to heaven.

A Prayer For "Renew My Church"
---------------------------------------

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today, as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us. In every age and in our own time, you call to us and say: Renew My Church. Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us, and so enable us

- to hear you clearly
- to listen to each other attentively
- to imagine our future boldly
- to discern your direction wisely
- to persevere in your holy will courageously
- to stay together in charity
- to surrender our own plans readily
- to embrace the greater good
- to hand on your gifts to future generations.

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles and all the saints. May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace. We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen

Faith & Fellowship

Seeking the Lost – Part II

Keeping in touch with Faith & Fellowship Partners who relocate is a challenge, normally with happy success. But not always.

Sometimes a Partner's wish to make a brand-new start means severing all ties with the past, and sadly that may mean F/F. Sometimes we don't learn about a phone disconnection or address change until it's too late to track the Partner down.

Over the years, several Partners have ended up in the corrections system, usually because their mental illness or failure of adequate community social services led them to commit some minor infraction.

There have been those rare and terrible times when we receive news that a Partner had died. But we've also known joy when someone "in the wind" reached out and reconnected with us. And we always keep in mind the words that close every F/F session: Shalom, my friends – til we meet again.

Parish Events

All special events in the church and school remain canceled as a precaution against the spread of the COVID

Our Pastor keeps on observing all health precautions and distancing as we minister to you.

Please contact or email us if we can be of any assistance to you at 708-386-8077 Monday-Friday. from 8:30 am | to 4:30 pm

Food for Thought

Our Eucharistic Invitation

When Jesus gave his Body and Blood, his very life, he established the new covenant, with the promise of salvation for the many, redemption for the sinners.

*This unconditional love lasts forever,
a promise ratified every time we meet
to all share once again in the Eucharistic sacrifice.
It forges our identity and strengthens us to be the Body of Christ that we receive.*

*The bread that Jesus offered as his own self,
and also the cup of the new covenant,
invited the disciples to be in communion with him,
in essence of his life, death and resurrection.
They pledged to be faithful, and do as he did;
Unfortunately, they failed almost immediately.
Their crucified and Risen Master forgave them,
and sent them forth to teach his unconditional love.*

*We are all in the apostles' shoes today,
following Jesus through his suffering and death,
so we can discover the true glory of humble service.
No one, not even Bishops, should interfere and essentially override a person's choice to accept Jesus' invitation to share in his Body and Blood. That choice comes from the heart.
How can it be any other way?*

The women of Chicago's west side and the near-west suburbs are invited to gather this summer to reconnect.

Shelby Boblick will facilitate the meetings, and we'll use as a catalyst the title of book, HEALING THE DIVIDE: Poems of Kindness & Connection. We need to heal, rekindle kindness, and connect.

Shelby will supply the poem(s) for each session and not all will be drawn from that book. No need to prepare in advance. If you'd like to bring a poem, prayer or reflection, you are most welcome.

We'll meet in person outside on the covered porch of Shelby's River Forest condominium. The building has elevator access. 9 women can participate in each session (plus Shelby). Only fully vaccinated women are invited. Please e-mail a copy of your vaccination card or bring it with you. We'll be seated 6 feet apart. BYO beverages. Face masks are required to enter the building & unit but are optional once outside on the porch.

Because attendance is so limited, you must e-mail or call Shelby to request any individual session(s) or the entire series. Shelby will follow-up by e-mail or phone to notify who is registered to attend which sessions. Every effort will be made to include everyone interested in at least 1 session, if not more.

We'll focus on different subjects each week. To accommodate a variety of schedules, we'll offer duplicate sessions each Monday: one at 1 p.m. and another at 7:30 p.m. Please request whichever time suits you and your life. No need to request the same time for each session.

..# Monday, June 7: "Shoulders" by Naomi Shihab Nye

..# Monday, June 21: "Change Sings" by Amanda Gorman

..# Monday, July 26: "Small Kindnesses" by Danusha Lameris

..# Monday, Aug. 9: "Summer Kitchen" by Donald Hall & "To Be of Use" by Marge Piercy

When Shelby confirms your registration, she will provide you the address, parking instructions, and electronic building access information.

Please join us! Questions or requests to participate, please ...e-mail shelbyboblick@outlook.com or call Shelby Boblick @ 630-240-2765.
