From Rev. John W. McGivern, Administrator

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today's Gospel passage provides us with rich imagery, which speaks to the realities of all of our lives. Each household, each parish, each individual can relate this story with the challenges and anxieties that we all face. The wind and waves were overwhelming. The boat rocked and began to fill up with water. Jesus, however, slept through it all. In fear for their lives, the disciples wakened Jesus, crying out:

“Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, ‘Quiet! Be still!’ The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then He asked them, ‘Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?’ They were filled with great awe and said to one another, ‘Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?’ ”

How often, in our lives, have we faced turbulence that seemed unrelenting? How often have we been afraid and wondered if the storm clouds would ever pass? I do not ask this lightly or with any kind of rebuke. Life has its challenges and there is no one who will make it through his or her lifetime without some measure of difficulty. At those times, how do we respond? Some may be too harsh on the disciples who shouldn't have feared at all since they were with the Lord. I wonder, though, wouldn't I have done the same thing? Would I have called on the one whom I thought could save me? And isn't that precisely what I/what we do when life's storm clouds come around again? We call on the Lord and we ask for a safety net.

The challenge that all of us have trouble remembering is the fact in good weather and bad, Jesus is in the boat with us too. We cry out and seek his help, because we forget that he is always and already right beside us. How do we remember this? Perhaps a life of prayer that is constant in both the peaceful and disquieted moments of life will help. Daily prayer focuses the heart and the mind. When I become anxious, there is a good chance that my prayer will become filled more with my own agenda than with what God desires of me. We so wish the turmoil to stop, the waves to settle down, and the wind to abate. Faith, at its best, points us toward the Lord in the midst of any turbulence.

It is often easier for me to face the Lord when all is well. Those individuals who, amid a crisis, are able to remain calm inspire me. Somehow, they do not become caught in the swirl around them. Everyone must face the turbulence and the storms that are a part of life. Contrary to what many may think, however, peace is possible in every storm that comes across the horizon of our lives. At those turbulent times, I pray that we may face the storm with the faith and hope that Jesus is right beside us, just as he has always been.

500 Club Certificates

The 500 Club keeps on rolling . . .

It would be fantastic to sell ALL of our 500 certificates again this year, especially since we've had to cancel most of our usual fundraisers for the last 15 months! Certificates can be purchased at any time and are $25 each. Once purchased, they are part of every weekly drawing through October 17th, 2021. The prize each of the remaining weeks is $25. IF we sell all of our remaining certificates, one more weekend will have a $500 prize!!! We hope to do that, just as we did last year!

We currently have 71 certificates left. Certificates may be for you, but they also make great gifts. We have had two $500 winners and several $25 winners whose certificates came to them as a gift. How nice was that!!! If you need a purchase form, they are available in the back of church and at the rectory office. You can also use GiveCentral at: www.givecentral.org/location/364/event/8132 or you can call Elaine Podraza at 708-524-1461 for a form. The 500 Club is a fun and pandemic-safe way to support the parish and it is open to everyone over 18, not just members of our parish community. Please pass the word.

Thank you for your continued participation and generosity in our fundraising efforts.

Prayer to St. Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you, God entrusted his only Son;
In you, Mary placed her trust;
With you, Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us, too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil.
Amen.

1st & 2nd Readings for the upcoming Sunday are offered to help all of us.

JUNE 27, 2021—
13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15, 2:23-24

The book of Wisdom was addressed to a group of Jews living in Alexandria, Egypt. It begins with a sharp contrast between good and evil. In the pagan world of that time, most people believed that there were good gods and bad gods. The author emphasizes the Jewish belief that there is just one God who is the source only of goodness and life.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians
8:7,9, 13-15

Today's excerpt from Second Corinthians paints a picture of Paul the pastor at work. The Jewish people in Jerusalem who had become Christian were a small ministry and were being persecuted. This brought on financial hardships. Paul wants his Gentile converts in Greece to help them out and show that the bonds of Christianity cut across ethnic lines.

Bequests

PLEASE consider remembering our parish in your will or trust. We have been blessed in the past by the generosity of so many parishioners and I am hopeful this will continue into the future.

School Scoop

...# We made it! This was a difficult school year, to say the least. But we did it; our teachers worked together and found a way. Congratulations to Arnette, Gina, and Marie for the beautiful ceremonies they put together. And thank you to everyone who watched our graduates.

...# Summer Camp begins tomorrow Monday, June 21 and runs through Friday, July 30. We will be using Rooms 1, 3, 4, 6, 8, 13, and 18. There will always be a staff member in the room; students will not be unsupervised. These rooms will be cleaned after camp has ended.

Faith & Fellowship

In September, 2019, James LaGrutta, a Franciscan student, was assigned by the Catholic Theological Union to serve an internship with Faith & Fellowship. At first, he was not completely thrilled with the assignment! But it turned out great – so great that he came back for a second year! Having graduated now, he sends this farewell: “Faith & Fellowship truly changed my life, ministry, and vocation as a Franciscan friar”. At first, I was a bit nervous as I did not what to expect. Little did I know this experience would change the course of my vocation and spirituality! The experience helped me to answer God's call, especially during the unprecedented and devastating Covid-19 pandemic. As I move to Boston, there will always be a special place in my heart for this ministry and the Partners we have served!

Re-opening the Parish

Though I remain somewhat skeptical that we are prepared to implement fully all of the Phase V guidelines (in that only 41% of the total Illinois population is fully vaccinated, as well as having many immune-compromised and otherwise still vulnerable to COVID-19 worshipers, and of course, our children who are yet to be vaccinated), we can certainly move forward. —Rev. John McGivern, SCSL Administrator

Beginning immediately

- ..# Registration is no longer required.
- ..# There are no capacity restrictions.
- ..# There is no longer any need to do screening for COVID.
- ..# Masks will be strongly encouraged for individuals to continue to wear.
 - È We will have masks and hand sanitizer bottles available at the church entrances.
 - È We will have signs that will state something like “For the safety of everyone, masks are strongly encouraged to be worn while inside church”.
 - È Greeters will NOT sanitize hands upon entering church and before Communion, but we will have containers for self-sanitizing at the Communion station, as well as at church entrances.
 - È In time, there will be changes to the pew arrangements, continuing to offer and encourage a small amount of social distancing.
- Pews might be re-numbered 1 – 2, or every other pew might be roped off.
- ..# Sanitizing church after every function is no longer necessary.
- ..# Austin Blvd. and Washington Blvd. entrances may be used for entering and exiting.
- ..# At this time, the receptacle for the collection of donations will remain at the front of the pews.
- ..# Congregational singing may return though this will inevitably conflict with mask wearing. (We will use hymnals again, and Worship Aids will no longer be printed)
- ..# For the time being, we will continue to have the gifts of bread and wine already at the altar and not brought forward by others in the assembly.
- For Communion, 2 lines may process forward. There will continue to be no distribution of the consecrated wine.

Food for Thought

Faith: Who is This?

*He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea,
 "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was a great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They said,
 "Who is this whom even the wind and sea obey?"*
 (Mark 4:41)

Paul says the love of Christ impels us
 to have driven, and be a strong moral force;
 commitment overrides our instincts.
 The people were convinced Christ's self-giving revealed the depth of God's love for them
 The disciples in the boat felt the links
 on their way to faith.

Mark's gospel simply tells us the story.
 How Jesus saved his friends while at sea.
 But it's also symbolic: it sheds light on what led Paul and friends to be impelled by Christ's unfailing love. On the boat, disciples saw Christ respond to their plight,
 on their way to faith.

The question Mark wants asked is "Who is this?"
 We are fashioned capable to respond.
 We see God's Majesty in creation,
 whether by love or natural beauty,
 Or astronomy and theology.
 Jesus' promise to be with us brings foundation.
 We found our way to faith.

The women of Chicago's west side and the near-west suburbs are invited to gather this summer to reconnect.

Shelby Boblick will facilitate the meetings, and we'll use as a catalyst the title of book, HEALING THE DIVIDE: Poems of Kindness & Connection. We need to heal, rekindle kindness, and connect.

Shelby will supply the poem(s) for each session and not all will be drawn from that book. No need to prepare in advance. If you'd like to bring a poem, prayer or reflection, you are most welcome.

We'll meet in person outside on the covered porch of Shelby's River Forest condominium. The building has elevator access. 9 women can participate in each session (plus Shelby). Only fully vaccinated women are invited. Please e-mail a copy of your vaccination card or bring it with you. We'll be seated 6 feet apart. BYO beverages. Face masks are required to enter the building & unit but are optional once outside on the porch.

Because attendance is so limited, you must e-mail or call Shelby to request any individual session(s) or the entire series. Shelby will follow-up by e-mail or phone to notify who is registered to attend which sessions. Every effort will be made to include everyone interested in at least 1 session, if not more.

We'll focus on different subjects each week. To accommodate a variety of schedules, we'll offer duplicate sessions each Monday: one at 1 p.m. and another at 7:30 p.m. Please request whichever time suits you and your life. No need to request the same time for each session.
