Thoughts From Rev. John W. McGivern, Administrator

Dear Friends,

With today's celebration of the Baptism of the Lord, we bring to a close the Season of Christmas. In the short span of roughly 2 weeks, we have considered his virgin birth in a manger (a feeding trough) for a bed. We have pondered his universal appeal as both shepherds and wise men from afar came to bow before him. We have recalled that Herod forced the Holy Family to flee to Egypt, that even at his birth, others sought to kill him. Finally, we were asked to fathom that the wood of the cradle and the wood of the cross were somehow inextricably linked.

Now the season is complete as the public ministry of our Lord Jesus begins after he is baptized in the Jordan River by John. Today, we heard the words of Peter being proclaimed in the Acts of the Apostles. He stated: "I begin to see how true it is that God shows no partiality. Rather, the individual from any nation who fears God and acts uprightly is acceptable to God... This is... 'the good news of peace' proclaimed through Jesus Christ who is Lord of all..." The Gospel reading which follows depicts the baptism of Jesus. The Lord's baptism, in so much as he was God's perfect gift to us, is an event of incredible humility. We learn time and again in the Gospels, that it is precisely in Jesus' humility that his divinity is most clearly revealed.

Recall how we encountered him over the past 2 weeks: as an infant, without a home, lying in a feeding trough for a stable of animals. Nonetheless, shepherds sought him and kings from far away journeyed to him. Now recall that from those humble beginnings, his life led to death on a cross—a criminal's death. From such an utterly humiliating death, the chasm between heaven and earth was forever filled. In other words, from the beginning to the end of his earthly existence, Jesus demonstrated his divinity to us in all the ways that mattered most: how he loved, how he forgave, how he welcomed the sinner, how he accepted the lowly, how he conferred the gift of peace. These are not activities of a privileged king. No, all these things that demonstrated his divinity to us most clearly of all, are all the things that you and I have access to today.

Reflecting, then, upon the baptism of Jesus, are we not likewise humbled to see the author of life submerged in complete supplication to the will of his Father? When we attempt to make sense out of this unfathomable truth, are we, too, not brought to our knees? In learning of our Lord's own humility and selfless desire to do the Father's will, do we not desire to do the same?

The Baptism of Jesus inaugurated his public ministry. It subsequently led to his suffering and death. If you and I allowed ourselves to experience something of the impact of his baptism as it is retold to us in our Sacred Scriptures, perhaps we, like Jesus, would also come to know and experience the greatest truth of all—that we are also God's sons and daughters and that already we are so fully and freely given his wonderful love. Should this sublime truth permeate our hearts and minds, imagine how differently we would live and act and even carry ourselves. In such a world, the God who shows no partiality would find a home among all people, and all people, in response, would humble themselves, thereby truly reflecting the beauty, the dignity and the divinity that we see in Jesus.

1st & 2nd Readings for the upcoming Sunday are offered to help all of us.

JANUARY, 16 2022—
2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 62:1-5

The last part of the book of Isaiah contains the words of a prophet who lived after the Jews returned from exile in Babylon six centuries before Christ. Upon their return, they found their temple destroyed and city of Jerusalem leveled. Still, the prophet sees a wonderful future for them because God loves them so much. Note the beautiful image he uses to describe that love.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Today, and for the next few weeks, our second reading will be from Paul's letter to the Corinthians. Corinth was a busy cosmopolitan seaport located in the central part of modern-day Greece. Here, Paul addresses problems his converts are experiencing as they live in a Christian life in this non-Christian environment.

Year-End Giving

As you begin your end-of-year tax planning, look into the advantages of the charitable tax deduction for gifts made before December 31 and consider the variety of gift options available to you. Your gift to our parish can make a great difference to us and help you as well. If you have appreciated securities, you may realize a tax benefit by donating them or other assets with capital gains to St. Catherine-St. Lucy Parish. If you are 70½ or older and have a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) from your retirement plan, you may be able to benefit from a qualified charitable distribution. The IRS requires individuals to begin taking annual minimum distributions from their traditional IRAs at age 70½. Ordinarily you would be required to pay income tax on these withdrawals. The IRA charitable rollover law, however, allows the RMD to be used as a direct distribution to a charity without being taxed. To take advantage of this tax break, you must be 70½ or older and complete the transaction by December 31. In addition, qualifying distributions to charity are limited to $100,000 per person for each tax year. As always, work closely with your IRA custodian and tax and legal advisors to determine how any particular strategy will affect your overall tax situation.

Please contact our Business Manager, Patricia Pomykalski at the Rectory | Parish Office at 708-386-8077 before the end of the first week of January is fine too to advise the parish of your gift so that it will qualify as a donation in 2021.)

We recommend online giving as a safe, convenient, and easy way to make gifts -- whether it's for your Sunday offering or a one-time gift such as for special collections.

GiveCentral allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org and under Steward and giving tab you will be able to find the link to GiveCentral

Help the Homeless

The Haymarket office at O’Hare Airport is in desperate need of winter clothing articles for the homeless population who come to the Haymarket office at O’Hare Airport. We have a SCSL parishioner that works there as an Outreach Worker and is willing to be taking your clothing articles to them.

Socks (the less ankle binding the better), Gloves, hats, scarves, jogging pants, preferably new. Used: Shoes boots, and coats in good condition will be accepted.

There will be a bin designated for this purpose in the back of the church. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Baptismal Death and Resurrection

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, we also honor our own baptism as our initiation into the Christian life and community. In the Gospel, the baptism of Jesus, with his immersion and then emergence from the water, points to his later submission to God at his death, and his emergence from the grave at his resurrection. This pattern of death and resurrection is our path too, as followers of Jesus. Throughout life, often in small ways, we learn to surrender our limited and self-centered agendas. This surrender often feels like death. The sacrament of Baptism ritually enacts this pattern to remind us of Jesus’ death and resurrection, so that we too might embrace the deaths and resurrections of our own lives. As Jesus emerged from the water, he encountered his Father and the Holy Spirit. Like Jesus, we can know we are God’s beloved, empowered by the Spirit.

Food for Thought

“A Light for the Nations”

“Jesus had been baptized, and was praying... the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form, like a dove. A voice came from heaven: ‘You are my beloved son; With you I am well-pleased.’ “ (Luke 3: 21-22)

After his baptism, and reception of the Holy Spirit, Jesus left for Nazareth to fulfill Isaiah’s prophecy:

A light would appear there; people in darkness see a great light, and so it begins.

The Bible presents God’s power as a light sustaining all things. “Let there be light,” the first words God speaks over non-existent light.

Light as the essence of creation, is intelligible to the human mind.

Sin separates us from the source of light, casting a shadow over our understanding of reality and creation.

Cut off from God, we’re disoriented—blind to identity.

We live in darkness.

Jesus as the Incarnate restores the light that makes everything intelligible and meaningful—we were blind but now we see.

Wherever he goes, people see creation restored to their right relationships.

Christmastime is meant to open our eyes to the light of life. We must unwrap the greatest gifts: what shepherds and Magi saw, meant for us;

What Mary pondered holding Jesus; how Joseph protected him.

The Light of their lives.

We share that ministry of light: justice and kindness, peace and love.

When we encounter Jesus in the sacraments, in prayer, in our faith community, he restores our nature to its divine sources.

May he be well-pleased.
