Thoughts From Rev. John W. McGivern, Administrator

Dear Parishioners,

There are many ways to talk about Pentecost. It is the 50th day of Easter, and it ends the Easter Season. In colloquial terms, Pentecost is the birthday of the Church, for when the Holy Spirit rushed upon the apostles, they became empowered to go and preach the Good News of Jesus; and the Church was born.

Today's first reading from the Acts of the Apostles tells the story of Pentecost that I had always envisioned as a child and the one with which we are all most familiar. Tongues of fire appeared above the apostles, and they all began to speak in strange and varied languages. Today's Gospel reading, however, depicts the story of Pentecost from the perspective of our resurrected Lord. I find it to be a more satisfying depiction in that Pentecost happens directly through our Lord Jesus and in a most personal way.

In the Gospel story, Jesus performed a very intimate act. It states that "...he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit...' " To breathe upon someone is intimate in that it connotes a closeness between two people. It is a personal encounter. It was the encounter of our Lord with the people he loved, and he was giving them a most precious gift. He gave to them the very breath of his being, his Spirit of life and love.

Today, as a grown man, I can hardly imagine a more loving and intimate act than to give yourself to another person. Think of your marriage in light of our Lord's intimate action with his disciples. Think of the relationship of a parent to child. Think of the experience of young love. Even childhood best friends whispering secrets holds something of this experience. The experience feels safe, uniquely personal, and very loving. It is the kind of experience that makes us feel special. It is the kind of action that makes us rejoice, and it creates within us the desire to share this same gift of love and intimacy, Spirit and life with others.

I never much liked to think of Pentecost as the birthday of the Church. The use of this language always struck me as somehow cheapening of its meaning and reducing this spirit-filled encounter with God to an annual party. Upon greater and renewed reflection, however, there is more wisdom with this notion than I earlier thought: Through Pentecost, we are all made to feel special, we are all given a wonderful gift (of the Holy Spirit), we all have reason to rejoice, and a sincere desire to share this wonderful gift with others. Though not a cake, we share in a meal not made with the sweetness that delights our taste buds but born of the sweetness that is our shared life and Communion with the Lord of All. This meal nourishes us and as on that first Pentecost, sends us forth to share the gift of the Spirit until that day when we can share fully in the great Communion of the heavenly banquet to which we have all been invited.

Come Join Us!

TODAY Sunday, June 5th, immediately following our 9 am Mass, the parish will host a farewell reception for Amanda Pomareda, former SCSL Office Manager.

Everyone is welcome to join us in Maguire Hall for light refreshments and for an opportunity for all of you to offer your own personal thanks and farewell.

A note from Fr. Carl:

What is happening at this time in the unification process? Our unification team is scheduled to meet again (Saturday, June 4) and I will keep you posted on our conversation.

Matt Brophy, our Operations Director for St. Giles and the new unified parish, and Rachel Faulman, my office Administrative Assistant, have been working with the staff at St. Catherine-St. Lucy gathering important information for the unification, which includes assessing the office needs and operational support.

We are working toward a common bulletin and other communication vehicles for our unified parish. These are many things to be considered but no firm decisions have been made to date.

Finally, I am happy to report that the Archdiocese will assign a priest to be Pastoral Associate to the two new unified parishes created in Oak Park. His name is Fr. Robert Carlton. This will be a part of our new reality as he will serve the members of the community at large helping both Fr. Rex and me at Ascension-St. Edmund, and at St. Catherine-St. Lucy and St. Giles. Watch for more information to come!

With you a Christian. For you a priest.

Fr. Carl

The Priests' Health and Retirement/PRMAA annual second collection will be June 11 and 12. This collection benefits the healthcare, wellness and retirement for the priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Your generosity to this special collection directly impacts the 450 active and 254 retired archdiocesan priests who we have come to rely on throughout our lives.

You may know that for many priests, even after their official retirement they continue to work throughout the archdiocese, presiding over Masses and assisting with sacrament preparation.

Your generosity will not only safeguard the health and well-being of our priests, but also support their ability to continue meaningful work in our parish and in the community.

In addition to the special collection envelopes that you will find in your pews today, you may also take a photo/scan of the QR code on the posters near the exit as you leave church or on the ads in both Católico and the Chicago Catholic newspapers. In addition, gifts may also be made through your will as part of your estate plans.

Thank you for your support of the priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago. May God bless you.

JUNE 12, 2022 THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

Pentecost was a Jewish feast that celebrated the beginning of the harvest. It took place 50 days after the feast of Passover. Jewish pilgrims came to Jerusalem from all over the ancient world for the celebration of the feast. Today we hear how Pentecost became a Christian feast.

Second Reading: Romans 8:8-17

Today's passage comes from chapter eight of Paul's letter to the Romans, which stresses the importance of the Holy Spirit in the lives of Christians. Paul wants us to remember that the Spirit who will raise our bodies on the last day is the same Spirit who inspires us to holiness every day. Today Paul offers a sharp contrast between life in the flesh (meaning, life prone to sin) and life in the Spirit.

Food for Thought A Step Towards Universality

"... Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim." (Acts 2:3-4)

The Pentecost story proclaims that the gifts of the Holy Spirit empower us to overcome the differences that divide the human community. Paul teaches that every person has the potential to be a source of grace, and to be graced by others. But is it used to bring divided people together? The candle of hope and faith must never be extinguished.

The importance of Pentecost cannot ever be overstated. Jesus' first word to the disciples after rising was "Peace." After showing his hands and side: "As the Father has sent me, so also I send you." He breathed on them: "Receive the Holy Spirit." He made clear forgiveness is the key charism for his disciples.

The word on Jesus was out...they came to see: from present-day Iran, Iraq, Turkey, Asia. Africa, Europe, even Rome. Acts says 3,000 people were baptized on that Day of Pentecost. All were forming a community of love and service. And with the mystery and the majesty of the miracle of tongues, all heard the word of the Spirit, proclaimed by disciples in the visitors' native tongues. A miracle with the crackle of excitement at the giant leap toward a Universal Church.

We frequently proclaim that we believe in the Holy Spirit. Pentecost asks "How deeply?" Enough to let Christ's Spirit impassion and empower us? Are we willing to be led beyond our culturally comfortable worlds, to form communities that include such diversity and such different viewpoints that we will need and even learn to enjoy exercising the charisms of humility, humor and forgiveness?

*May the glory of the Lord endure forever;
Pleasing to him be my theme;
I will be glad in the Lord. (Psalm 104:31&34)*

Parish Affiliation: St Giles

I have been a St. Giles parishioner since 1998, months before the first of my four children was born. All four of my children passed through St. Giles school and are now college-aged or beyond. My wife, Paula, and I just celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary this past April. I have been working as an Associate Vice President for Mission and Ministry at DePaul University since 2005, having served previously as the Executive Director of Amate House, with the Archdiocese of Chicago. I received a Doctorate in Ministry (D.Min.) from Catholic Theological Union in Chicago in 2019, a Masters in Divinity from Loyola University's Institute for Pastoral Studies in 1998, and a Bachelor's degree in Economics and Theology in 1989.

I am eager and enthused to be a part of the Unification team. While change can be challenging, I am always inspired and motivated to envision the future and what is possible. In my own understanding, this includes thinking in new ways about how we understand Church and parish. I am also hoping to recruit some St. Catherine-St. Lucy's parishioners who might be "ringers" to join my team in our annual Retreads basketball league!

I was born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio. My dad just retired as a Deacon at Holy Spirit Catholic Church in Cleveland, Ohio.

My wife Cheryl Jackson and I have been residents of Oak Park for 26 years and members of SCSL for 20 years. Before coming to SCSL, we attended church in Chicago. Cheryl taught the Children's Liturgy, and I was a member of the Pastoral Council.

At SCSL, Cheryl served for five years as a catechist, working with 2nd and 4th level students teaching in the Religious Education Program and a member of SCSL Pastoral Council.

Our twin daughters, Skylar and Sydney Jackson, were confirmed at SCSL. Skylar graduated with honors from DePaul University in 2021, and Sydney graduated from the University of Chicago in 2021 with honors. Skylar is starting graduate school at UIC in 2022.

Sydney was the founder of the Roses for Austin Program at the school in 2016. Sydney and Skylar worked together in the Roses for Austin Program, still in existence today.

I was also a member of the Lucienne House Committee, the SCSL Pastoral Council in 2012 and most recently was the contact for Donut Days taking over for Pierre Priestly, who served in this role for many years.

As an African American male in the Catholic Church, I will be a voice for all people who believe in Christ.

What will make me remember you? Some parishioners of SCSL used to call me Peter. Peter Barber is another African American male in the church who also has two daughters of similar ages to my daughters, Skylar and Sydney Jackson. I am a runner and have participated in the Petit Indoor Marathon Relay for 12 consecutive years.
