Thoughts From Rev. John W. McGivern, Administrator

As my tenure as an Oak Park pastor comes to a close, you can imagine that I have become even more nostalgic than usual. Of course, having had the privilege of being a priest now for over 31 years, I have had a front row view to very many love stories.

This includes the hundreds of weddings at which I've presided from all the parishes I've been assigned, including those of several nieces and nephews. It is a beautiful part of priestly ministry, for young love is contagious, and who doesn't like to share in some of that?

There are so many other kinds of love stories that I've been honored to know and share: I've seen the immense love of a parent or parents to their children and had the pleasure to baptize so many of those children.

In my short time among you at St. Catherine/St. Lucy Parish, I've witnessed a deep faith and love of people for their parish. I think of Tom and Pat Nelson, who give of their time and energy, and share their faith so beautifully. I think of your PPC (Parish Pastoral Council) who are as committed a group of individuals as perhaps I have ever encountered, and who so obviously love their parish and the people they serve. There is, of course, your own kindness and welcome to me over 15 months ago when I was assigned as your parish administrator.

There is also the love story of my friend Don who devoted himself to his mother's care, with such joy and gratitude, until she was called home to God.

I've also had the privilege to renew the vows of couples at 25, 40, 50, 60 and one couple, even at 75 years of marriage. Their names were Andy and Ethel. I loved them so much. That day, when they renewed their vows, neither could walk any more, but they were wheeled down the church aisle together, holding hands, and the excitement and the love that so animated their faces and so filled them with an overflowing joy, made me believe that they were somehow floating, although their advanced ages kept them firmly anchored in their wheelchairs. I will never forget that day. And today, though both Andy and Ethel have been called home to God, I still think of them with great fondness and love.

Really and truly, I marveled at them and the thought that for over 75 years, through the great highs and the deep lows of living, their love for each other was unwavering. And they shared that love with their children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, so many others, and with me. Within their love story, so much more love came to be. Like the ripple in a placid lake, their love was the impetus for so much more love.

There are so many other love stories that I could share with you. Of course, you know so many yourselves. All of these love stories, each beautiful, hopeful and inspiring on their own, are also all part of an even greater love story.

The greatest love story of all time is the story of our salvation. God, despite all our failings, has such great love for us that he is unwilling to leave us in our sinfulness. God willingly sacrificed his only Son so that we might be raised from the death of sin and come to share in his life of communal love.

Today's solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity celebrates that life of communal love. For God is one God, in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – whose relationship is one of complete self-gift and outpouring of love. In other words, God is not a being who loves, God is love itself. Really imagine that for a moment. God isn't the most loving being. God is Love. The act of love. The forgiveness of love. The joy of Love. Do you remember this song?

Where charity and love prevail, there God is ever found;
Brought here together by Christ's love, by love are we thus bound.

The final verse is especially fitting today:

No race or creed can love exclude, if honored be God's name;
Our family embraces all whose Father is the same.

That God is greater than we can ever know and yet is also one who revealed himself to us in his Son is truly something to celebrate. For the God who is transcendent – above all things – is also immanent: present to all things. He invites us to relationship with him; to open our hearts and minds to how he reveals himself to us.

Today's solemnity is actually a double celebration, then. We celebrate what God has revealed and we accept the invitation to know him more, and to find joy and fulfillment in that knowing.

And, perhaps we begin to understand better that every love story leads us to the God-story, the greatest love story there is. For within that story of our salvation, every love is situated.

In other words, the Love story of Father, Son and Spirit, being the first ripple in that placid lake, from whence every love is born, is at the heart of every other. Therefore, God permeates our being and identity; and our being and identity is love.

Fr. John McGivern

The Priests' Health and Retirement/PRMAA annual second collection will be THIS WEEKEND, June 11 and 12. This collection benefits the healthcare, wellness and retirement for the priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Your generosity to this special collection directly impacts the 450 active and 254 retired archdiocesan priests who we have come to rely on throughout our lives.

You may know that for many priests, even after their official retirement they continue to work throughout the archdiocese, presiding over Masses and assisting with sacrament preparation.

Your generosity will not only safeguard the health and well-being of our priests, but also support their ability to continue meaningful work in our parish and in the community.

In addition to the special collection envelopes that you will find in your pews today, you may also take a photo/scan of the QR code on the posters near the exit as you leave church or on the ads in both Católico and the Chicago Catholic newspapers. In addition, gifts may also be made through your will as part of your estate plans.

Thank you for your support of the priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago. May God bless you.

Juneteenth 2022 Honoree: Mrs Ren'ee Hodges

The Juneteenth National Independence Day Act (2021) created a federal holiday to commemorate the freedom for black slaves in Texas and Louisiana on June 19, 1865. Though President Lincoln had signed the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863, news of this freedom was obstructed for two more long years of slavery. June 19 has since become a day of restoration and celebration.

Our theme this year is :

No one is free until everyone is free.

Food for Thought

Contemplating Trinitarianism

As we celebrate the Trinity,
we take time to ask what God is like,
and what it means to us.
God's a Trinity of three in one.
We contemplate as a mystery.
We mull it over with an attitude that revels in awe
and drops any need for clear answers.
It draws us toward God,
and is too deep for our thought and prayer.
Theologians say "a mystery,"
but still we address it.

Proverbs writes of Lady Wisdom and Creation, sourced from God's Divine
Joy.

By early Christians, she was connected with Jesus, who made God present among them. They conceived

of him saying to them:
*"...hope does not disappoint because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit."
They began to develop a new understanding of God being present in them,
in unique ways (Romans 5:4-5)*

John in his gospel portrayed Jesus in intimate communion with God,
whom he called the Father.
His relationship with his Father could not be separated from his promises to his followers,
that they're capable of sharing the same relationship with him and the Father, through the Holy Spirit.

We begin to see what God's being,
as Trinitarian, has to do
with us, when we contemplate
God as Trinity—Father, Son and Holy Spirit, able to draw all creation into divine life.

A note from Fr. Carl:

UNIFICATION and what you should know. The unification team for Saint Giles and Saint Catherine - Saint Lucy met again last Saturday, June 4. We experienced our own Pentecost-like moment! During the first half of the meeting, members shared and discussed the OAK PARK COMMUNITY DISCERNMENT and SUMMARY document that was the fruit of the Renew My Church (RMC) process. This is the document that was presented to the Archdiocese this past November, and represents the thoughts of the pastors, pastoral leaders, parish delegates, and the hundreds of parishioners who participated in the RMC process over the last year.

Here is a sample of comments regarding the RMC summary document shared with the unification team.

- ~ The spirit of the document was divinely inspired and is the spirit of Vatican II
- ~ Great emphasis on Community
- ~ Missionary impulse – evangelize all people, not just those currently in our parishes
- ~ Light of justice
- ~ Accompaniment is important
- ~ We see a hopeful future

On more pragmatic issues, we discussed how we can shepherd our existing parishes from the reality of the past to this new reality and we landed on the following.

~ On the weekend of June 18-19, a member of the unification team will provide an update at each Mass in our parish communities, St. Giles and St. Catherine- St. Lucy. This will also take place for the Ascension and St. Edmund parishes as well. It is our hope to begin to share the RMC Summary Document so that it can be read, discussed, and ground us all in the same spirit intended in the document.

~ We are also planning MASS and MEETS for the summer months to enable parishioners from St. Giles to visit St. Catherine - St. Lucy and vice versa.

~ At this time, we decided Mass times will remain as they are in both locations for now.

~ The unification team will meet again on June 20, July 23, and August 15. We will continue to update you on our progress as we, and our blended parish councils, meet during the summer months.

Like the disciples at Pentecost, we are coming to see that the Spirit is acting powerfully through our lives today. We are a bit stunned by what is happening and it will take time to process and figure out all the details.

Today, we celebrate another great Feast of the Church, The Most Holy Trinity. Jesus hints at a deep friendship with the Father and the Spirit in today's readings. This Divine friendship is also meant to be ours. What encouragement that is for us to remember as we travel into the "building a new reality" aspect of RMC.

Have a great week ahead. Be safe and stay well.

With you a Christian. For you, a priest.

Fr. Carl
