The Unification Team met on Wednesday, August 3, to discuss the naming process for our unified Parish community. I share their plans with you below.

With you a Christian. For you a priest.

Announcement of Naming Process, August 3, 2022 St. Catherine-St. Lucy and St. Giles Unification Team

We are happy to share with you the process for the naming of our new parish. We will have two all-parish meetings in early September to share the values we treasure, the future we envision, and the message we would like to convey by our name to ourselves, other Catholics, and the public in the Oak Park/Chicago area.

The first of these foundational meetings will be in-person on Saturday, September 10, at 10:00-11:30 am. We will meet in Maguire Hall (gym) next to St. Catherine-St. Lucy Church on Austin Boulevard. For those who prefer to meet on Zoom, there will be a similar large group meeting on Zoom on Wednesday, September 14, at 7:00-8:30 pm. All parishioners are welcome to attend the meeting of their choice. Meanwhile, we will continue our Mass & Meet opportunities in August and September to help us get to know each other better. Check the bulletin for the dates of these upcoming Mass & Meets.

In mid-September, we will provide the church guidelines for parish names and naming resources that you may want to use to help generate ideas. Here are the highlights:

Only names can be considered that include a name of a saint or saints, the Virgin Mary, or a solemnity of the church that has a designated celebration date in the church calendar, such as the Annunciation.

Names may not duplicate those of any other Catholic church, parish, school, or building in the archdiocese.

Our goal is to identify a name that conveys a strong link with our values and mission.

Every parishioner will be asked to suggest names--and provide the rationale for each suggestion--on a paper or online form that will be distributed in mid-September. Following this process of gathering parishioner ideas, there will be a survey to determine the most popular candidates. The top selections will be presented to the Presbyteral Council for review. These church pastors and other church leaders will consider the suggestions and submit three recommended names to Cardinal Cupich. The Cardinal will discern the final designation of our parish name.

Our goal is to complete our part of this process by the end of October, with the hope that we will have a new parish name by year-end.

Please consider participating in the important conversations about our shared values, open to all parishioners, on September 10 (in person at SCSL gym at 10:00 am) and September 14 (over Zoom at 7:00 pm). Your input is an important part of our unification and naming process.

P.S. Our third Courtyard Concert is this Friday, August 19, at 7:30 pm. Be sure to bring a chair, some wine and snacks, and join us under the canopy for an evening of opera and showtunes with the Lyric Opera Stage Artists. In the event of inclement weather, we will meet in McDonough Hall.

Let the children come

Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." Matthew 19:14

Do you have small children and are wondering how to keep them engaged at Mass and further encourage their faith life? Here are some options...

Sit in one of the front rows. While it might seem like an odd place for little ones, sitting close to the front of church means that they can see what is happening at the altar. That way the children can be engaged and notice what the presider is doing. They can follow the flow of the Mass; they can sing with the cantor; they can practice saying the prayers and doing the gestures. If a child's attention wanders, it can always be redirected to the liturgy.

If a child needs more activity, there are children's bags in the back of church for the 10:30 am Mass at St. Giles. In the bags, there are books on the Mass as well as coloring sheets specific to that weekend's readings. Crayons and colored pencils are included. Simply pick up a bag before church and return it afterwards.

If a child could use their own learning environment, register the child for PREP. It is religious education for children 3-5 years of age. PREP meets twice a month on Sundays from 10:30-11:30 am in the Gleeson Building on the St. Giles campus. For PREP, be sure to register through the religious education registration process.

For further and more in-depth faith formation, enroll your child in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Level I is designed for children ages 3-6 years. CGS Level I meets at the parish center on the St. Giles Campus on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday from 4:00 – 5:15 pm or Saturdays from 10:00 – 11:15 am. To have your child participate in CGS, register for religious education on the parish website.

The faith life of you and your children are so very important in the life of our parish. Children are both welcomed and treasured!

For more information regarding any of these, contact Marci at mmadary@stgilesparish.org or 708-383-3430 ext. 404

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) in Spanish Quiere Recibir los Sacramentos?

¿Qué es RICA o Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos?

Las clases de RICA son parte de la catequesis que ofrece nuestra parroquia y está orientada a aquellas personas adultas de 18 años en adelante que desean aprender más acerca de la Iglesia Católica Romana y ser miembros en plena comunión con la Iglesia. En este bonito caminar aprendemos a ver como la iglesia ve a la persona en su semejanza e imagen de Dios, qué importancia tiene la vida cristiana para nuestra comunidad, usamos el catecismo de la iglesia, la Biblia y folletos. Los temas que estudiamos son muy variados, algunos de ellos son:

- ¿QUÉ ES LA IGLESIA?
- PERSONA DE JESÚS
- HISTORIA DE LA IGLESIA
- COSTUMBRES Y ORACIÓN
- LITURGIA, MISA
- LA BIBLIA, MAGISTERIO Y TRADICIÓN
- LOS SACRAMENTOS Y SACRAMENTALES
- MARÍA Y LOS SANTOS
- EL CREDO
- EL REZO DEL SEÑOR Y SUS PETICIONES

Este camino de Fe termina su jornada en la Vigilia Pascual - Sábado Santo- celebración muy solemne en la cual no sabemos si es el cielo que baja o es la Iglesia que sube. La iglesia te espera, no faltes! Si usted es bautizado/a y no ha hecho la primera comunión ni confirmación le invitamos a la oportunidad de continuar aprendiendo más sobre su fe.

BIBLE STUDY

We continue the weekly Bible Study sessions on Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. It is NOT necessary or required you attend each week... Come when you can!! The sessions will be offered in-person and via Zoom. The location if you wish to join in-person will be the living room at the St. Giles Campus Parish Center, located at 1025 Columbian Avenue.

In this summer session, we will be using the series The Chosen as a tool to help explore more deeply the reality of Jesus as God and man. We'll be sending bible verses/chapters that will be referenced in the episode that we will be watching each week as well as questions to ponder and discuss together. Even if you've already watched The Chosen once (or twice...), it will be an opportunity to experience it more deeply.

If you do not have computer access to receive the bible chapters and aids, paper copies will be made available for pick up at the Parish Center office. For information or questions, please contact Maria Samatas at 708-267-2086 or email her at: msamatas@me.com.

Faith & Fellowship

A Friend – Lost and Found

The Catechist was stunned to recognize the name and photo on the "Missing Person" flier in the Church's Fried Chicken window – "Lisette," one of our Partners, and a friend. Fearing the worst, the Catechist called the number on the flier. Lisette's sister answered, and said she had been found, safe and unharmed – thanks be to God! The Catechist explained her connection, and the sister's voice was filled with joy to know that a church community is a part of Lisette's life. She was deeply grateful for our prayers, and for our concern. But it was her closing words that said it all:

I'm glad to know she has friends.

Food For Thought

An Act of Self-Emptying Love

"The Spirit was palpable at the masses this weekend. I think we can hear the Beloved One saying if we open our hearts unreservedly and unify with grace and love, it will be both generative and attractive to the wider community." (Pat Carew, Unification Team)

Disciples face a paradox as revealed by Jesus, about finding and losing ourselves, (from Matthew 16). Jesus will go to Jerusalem, to end his mission's story. He will be rejected and killed—not what they expected. That self-sacrifice will usher in the life of glory, which is their destiny if they're willing to follow him.

If we agree to lose ourselves for the sake of Jesus and others, it's a life-long project, not a single act. When we empty ourselves because of the community, we've actually climbed the mountain of self-fulfillment. But if we pull back on the reins to protect our impunity, we end up totally isolated and incomplete.

The wonder of our love is that, if we share with others, it returns multiplied, in ways we cannot assay. Or we just might learn that pursuing approval and love for our own satisfaction only drives others away.

Jesus' Transfiguration on the mountaintop occurs on the way to Jerusalem, witnessed by Peter, James and John. They will see his messianism unfurled. Jesus is to reveal by his surrender on the cross, where God's Mercy is to be poured out on a sinful world, a stunning act in a pattern of self-emptying love.

On the mountaintop, his face shown as the sun; his garments were white as snow; and the voice from a bright cloud echoed:

This is my beloved son, in whom I am well pleased; hear him." (Matt 17:5)

Each time we lose ourselves for others, we will find the road to the company of Jesus.
