Fr. Carl's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

With the official appointment letters included in this week's bulletin, we embark on a new journey together that includes two parishes, four sites, five unique faith communities (with the Family Mass Community at St. Giles), one pastor and a pastoral team with Fr. Rex serving as Moderator of Pastoral Care. While Fr. Rex's focus will be on the newly united Ascension and St. Edmund Parish, he, along with Fr. Carlton and myself, will assist each other as we do our best to meet all of your pastoral needs. One thing I have seen and experienced these last couple years, having said Masses in each community, is the unwavering support and dedication to our parishes, for which I am grateful.

As we navigate through these times of change, it brings me a great sense of encouragement when we have the opportunity to have honest conversations and work through the process of creating new structures which will honor our unique gifts as communities of faith, as well as recognize that we are stronger working together.

Change can often be intimidating and it is natural to feel a sense of unease when faced with new circumstances. As our two separate parishes move into the next phase of Renew My Church, Building a New Reality, it is important to remember that change can also present us with opportunities for growth and renewal. By finding a way within ourselves to accept change while embracing the challenges that accompany it, we can continue to strengthen our sense of community and deepen our connection with one another. I trust that the guidance of the Holy Spirit, our collective efforts, shared wisdom, and diverse perspectives will help lead us through any obstacles we may encounter. I am grateful for your commitment, faith and unwavering dedication to our community and for the strength of our collective spirit.

May God's blessing be with us all.

Have a safe and enjoyable Fourth of July Holiday.

With you a Christian. For you a priest.

Fr. Carl

St. Edmund Church Construction Update

June 21, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

This is a collective update on the construction progress at St. Edmund Church as of June 21st from our parish leadership and the Chicago Archdiocese.

Here are the key happenings:

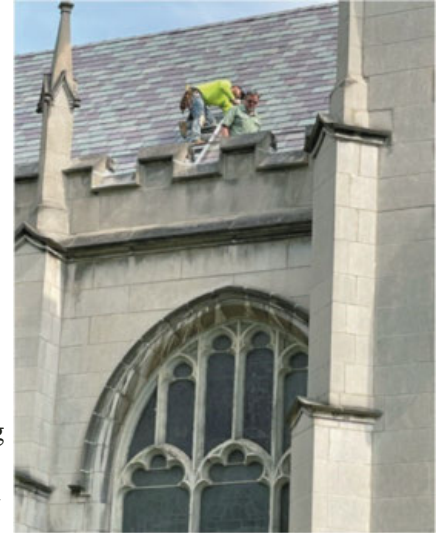

- Part of the assessment process includes looking at the entire church structure to identify any work which may require our attention both as a result of damages caused by the storm or as a result of normal wear. Once we identify both storm-related and non-storm related needs, we can share that information. At that time, we can have a dialogue about what can be reasonably covered with insurance versus what may need additional funding. Many of you have asked about starting a fundraising initiative but right now we don't have enough information. You have always been generous stewards and when the time comes, should there be a need for additional support, we will let you know. Thank you for your willingness to help.
- This week's work on the church involved assessing non-storm related areas by the team of Wiss, Janney and Elstner along with Jones & Cleary. They examined the underlayment (tar paper) underneath the slate and roofing materials at the bottom of the sloping roof. They also looked at the copper roofing over the front entrance of the church which showed some evidence of water seepage in the front entrance. The stained glass windows were also inspected.
- The facility advisory committee comprised of several parishioners is planning to schedule a follow up meeting with parish leadership and the representative from the Archdiocese of Chicago.

As always, please don't hesitate to reach out to Fr. Carl or Fr. Rex directly with any questions or concerns. Thank you for your faithfulness to our parish.

Second Collection This Weekend: Peter's Pence

This weekend, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See which includes helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression and disasters. Support for such papal efforts is rooted in the scriptural message to take care of the poor and expresses unity with the Holy Father. Fr. Greg Boyle Faith & Fellowship Empty and Lifeless?

The Faith & Fellowship room in the St. Catherine-St. Lucy Rectory basement feels empty and lifeless; meetings are on Summer hiatus. But... artwork from this past season hangs on the walls; paints, crayons, colored pencils and pens, puzzles – some needing to be sorted, discarded, and replaced; art paper, clay, beads to be replenished. Then... chairs arranged in our prayer circle, Bible, candle, crucifix, and sound system: still ready for prayer. And... kitchen cupboards: cleaning, inventorying, restocking. Empty and lifeless? No, not really. The Spirit of this past year remains, and awaits in readiness for when we're together again in the Fall.

Food For Thought

Ego Sum Pastor Bonus

"I am the Good Shepherd, and I know mine, and mine know me, and I know the Father; I lay down my life for my sheep. Other sheep I have that are not of this fold. Them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd."
(John 10:14-16)

"Let us practice patience and act with love, by assuming the best in others."

Words of advice from Carl's Corner.

"All who believe,
all who have faith,
will earn eternal life."

(JP II: "Invitation to Joy")

It's our good fortune

at St. Catherine-St. Lucy and St. Giles Parish to have in Fr. Carl Morello
the kind of pastoral leadership
required in Building
a New Collaborative Reality.

To People from SCSL, he has been a gracious, thoughtful leader,
whose sincere, welcoming style
and frequent masses he has offered there,
have made our challenging journey feel natural.
His guidance in opening the SCSL rectory
to the homeless for showers, beds and meals is for us all a profound example
of deep brotherly love.

Recently Fr. Carl has begun searching for ways to address migrant desperate needs
for shelter and the rejoining of families.

And when I heard he had called choir member Cynthia Weaver after her terrible house fire,
with expressions of encouragement and kindness,
this piece called out to be written.

Fr. Carl now faces perhaps his biggest challenge,
as the Archdiocese chose him to also serve as pastor of Ascension and St. Edmund's parish.

And thus the entire Oak Park area
now becomes his faith community.

This humble, hard-working, personable man—
once a kid playing in the streets of Forest Park—serves now as Guardian of the Faith of all Oak Park.

Of course, he has able assistants
in Fathers Rex and Robert.

But Fr. Carl is the man who will be responsible for keeping those lamps trimmed and burning.

And so this astute, yet fun-loving man
first walked through the front entrance of the rectory on Columbian
in early July of 2009.

His accomplishments, with Matt Brophy
his administrative engine, are extraordinary.
But his presence is felt more through who he is,
kind, gentle, soft-spoken, inspirational, sensitive leader. Our prayers will help sustain him.
